

Casa Horti Campo

Region: Pollensa Sleeps: 8

Overview

Set against a stunning backdrop of Majorcan mountains and countryside, Casa Horti Campo is a beautiful traditional stone house that has been mindfully restored to retain its original charm and authentic features.

The traditional country home, located just a mile from the old town of Pollensa, is filled with open stone walls, beams and arched tile ceilings alongside contemporary features and designs to ensure guest's comfort and relaxation during their getaway.

Through the hallway lies the gorgeous open plan lounge and dining area, with whitewash beams and stone walls creating a very airy indoor living space. The comfortable sofas point to the satellite TV and free standing wood burning stove, while the dining table is situated at the foot of the open staircase leading to the first floor.

Next door is the fully equipped kitchen, which has direct access to the front terrace by the private pool outside. There is one twin bedroom on the ground floor with an ensuite shower room.

Upstairs, there are three further bedrooms; one double and two twins, which are beautifully decorated in ornate style, with rustic wooden windows offering views across the gardens and gorgeous antique wooden beds. The 3 bedrooms, on the first floor, share a bathroom, featuring a large corner bath and shower.

Outside, amongst the endless lawned garden and south facing the private pool, it's hard to believe Casa Horti Compo is a semi-detached property.

The beautiful shaded dining terrace and chill out area with comfortable outdoor furniture, is a lovely spot for guests to relax during the day into the evening, with no need to go thanks to the brick BBQ for alfresco cooking indoors. From the terrace, guests can access the convenient outdoor shower, which is ideal after a day under the Majorcan sun!

Location & Local Information

The beautiful villa is ideally located to both beautiful beaches and ancient towns for exploring with the family.

Pollensa, which is one of Mallorca's most attractive ancient towns due to the winding cobbled lanes with historic architecture and an impressive main square, lined with cafes, restaurants and bars, is a beautiful spot to explore or head out for a meal.

The town has several cultural sites to take in, including the Roman bridge 'Pont Roma', which is still in use, and the Puig de Pollensa – a small mountain topped by a monastery, just outside the town.

Pollensa's golf course is close by too and is a beautiful spot for golf lovers to enjoy a game under the Mallorcan sun.

Port de Pollensa is also worth a visit if you love fabulous beach bars and boutiques and a beautiful large marina and a horseshoe bay, with a stunning mountain backdrop. On the other side of the port, D'Albercuix Beach runs alongside a promenade known as the pine walk and lined with tall pine trees. The beach is smaller and less touristy, making it ideal for younger families. Other beaches nearby include Cala San Vincenc, an old fishing village arranged around four little cove beaches and stunning blue water, Cala Barques and Cala Molins.
