Location & Local Information

Vathi is a seaside village on the south-west side of Sifnos in Crete. It's a picturesque port with a sandy beach and deep blue waters surrounded by rocky cliffs. This peaceful Greek island is a popular holiday destination due to its rugged mountainous landscape – perfect for walks, hikes and treks – alongside its beautiful stretches of coastline and colourful history.

Daios Cove invites all their guests to make the most of their stay in Vathi with tailor-made excursions, sightseeing tours and sailing trips to the island's most renowned attractions and concealed treasures. Let Daios Cove beach resort in Agios Nikolaos lead you through the paths of history, introduce you to the Cretan way of living and show you the island's unique heritage, fascinating secrets, enchanting nature and vibrant night-life, with many visiting artists.

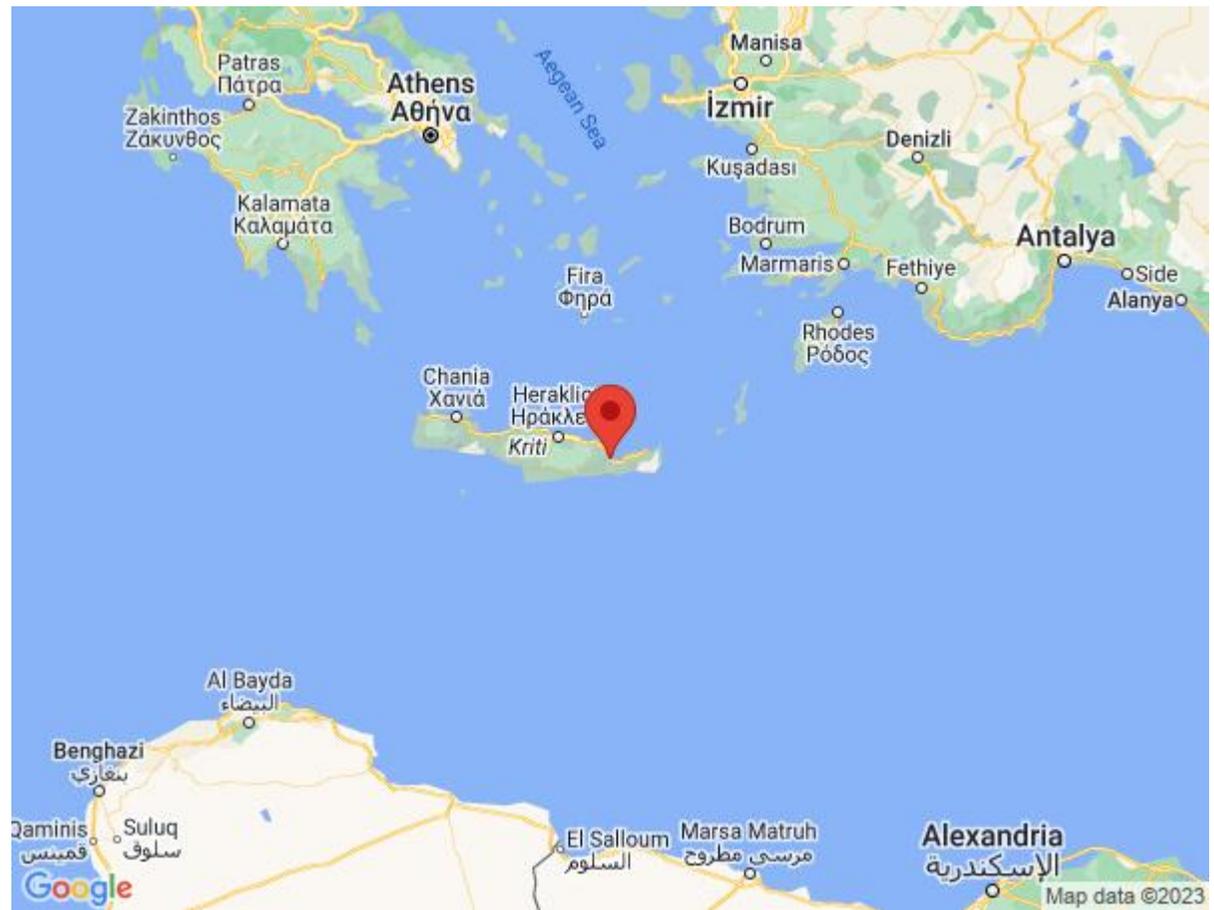

Nearby, the Dikteon Andron caves at Psychro, Oropedio Lasithiou are worth visiting, as are the temple ruins at Knossos, which date back up to 4,000 years. The town of Agios Nikolaos, the capital of Lasithi, is a 10-minute drive and 20 minutes takes you to the fishing village of Elounda. In Agios Nikolaos, you can head to the harbour and Voulismeni Lake, where you'll find restaurants, shops and cafés lining the waterfront. Try fresh seafood and Cretan cheeses or relax with a cooling drink.

In the town, the beaches of sandy Ammos and pebbly Kytroplatia are popular choices with clear, calm waters that are ideal for younger swimmers, and they're close to all the amenities of the town. For a change of scenery, you could go north to Ammoudi with a longer stretch of coastline, Almyros Beach which is set in a sheltered cove or Havanía Beach on the northern outskirts of the town.

For fun day trips from Agios Nikolas, you can jump on a boat to explore more of Crete's scenic coastline and secluded, rocky coves. You can visit Spinalonga, the smallest of the Cretan islands, with its old Venetian fortress, and you can swim or snorkel off the beaches on the Kolokytha Peninsula.
