

Villa Coral

Region: Albufeira Sleeps: 10

Overview

The elegant and luxurious Villa Coral is a stunning getaway for big families and large groups of friends. Located in Portugal's hot Algarve, Villa Coral boasts an outdoor pool that beautifully lights up at night, a relaxing wooden sauna and spacious rooms inside of the property.

The white exterior of the villa is complemented by lovely flowering trees growing up its front. Hedges, pine trees and plants surround Villa Coral making it truly feel like an escape into paradise.

Guests will be able to fully absorb the surrounding nature with a quaint stone terrace complete with a seating and dining area as well as a hammock for swinging the sunny days away.

The terrace benefits from a wooden roof with lanterns hanging down and plenty of seats to dine, relax and entertain friends. The gorgeous pool comes with sun lounges situated in a prime location for catching sun rays.

Inside, the striking bright pink dining room has seating for up to six people with the unique design providing a charming ambience. The kitchen is bright, spacious, and well-equipped with modern appliances and a small seating area. The room also benefits from a bookshelf and small stereo.

The delightful living room using colour to create a welcoming and tasteful design with cosy large sofas and a large number of artworks and portraits emblazoned onto the walls.

The living room leads out onto the garden, minimising the boundaries between inside and outside space and has large windows surrounding it that bring in an amazing natural light.

Capacious hallways lead into the bedrooms that are furnished with luxurious and comfortable king-sized beds, stylish minimal furniture and ample space for winding down in the evenings before sleeping.

Villa Coral is an amazing property that provides a glorious holiday home amongst all of the natural beauty that the Algarve has to offer.

Location & Local Information

Located near the old town of Guia in Albufeira, Villa Coral boasts peaceful surroundings with plenty to see, watch and do. Guia is a small civil parish situated in the Algarve.

As Guia is inland from the coast it is a great place to take in the natural greenery of the Algarve and is well known for creating the delicious and popular Piri-Piri Chicken.

The area is also appreciated for its fine wines and is home to the award-winning Adega do Cantor winery at the top of Quinta do Miradouro that is partly owned by singer Sir Cliff Richard.

Visitors can enjoy a scenic tour of the vineyards, winery and cellars before stopping off at the tasting bar, where they can try the array of beautiful wines and possibly make a purchase.

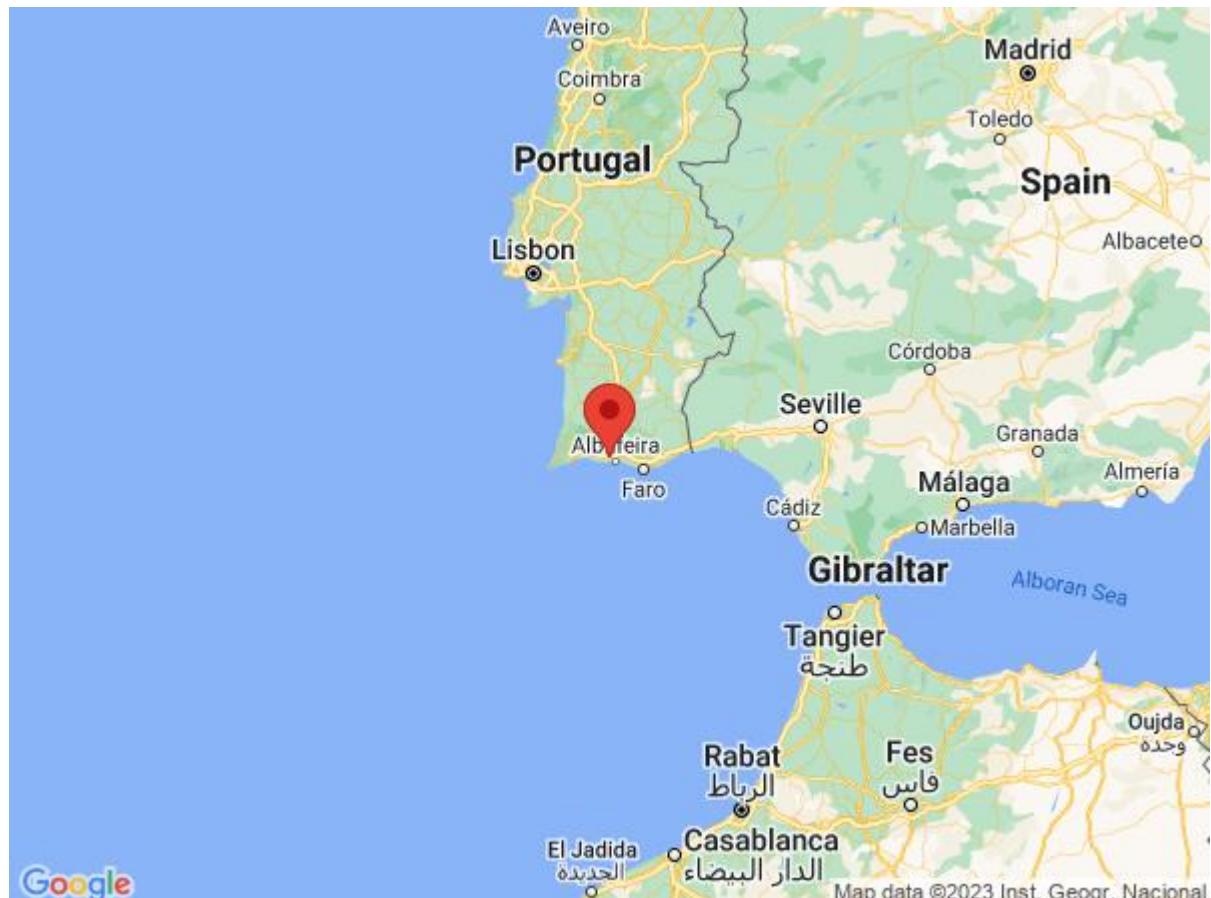

One of the Algarve's first shopping centres is located in Guia, where visitors can find food, clothes, appliances, souvenirs and more. The modern shopping centre also holds a food court and a multiplex cinema that showcases films in English.

Praia dos Pescadores in Albufeira is only 4km from Villa Coral and is a beach lovers paradise with striking cliffs in the backdrop providing protection from harsh winds. The beach location is ideal for watching romantic sunsets and gets quite busy in the wonderful summer months.

This old fisherman's beach is accessible through an escalator that leads down from behind the cliffs in the Old Town and boasts a range of lovely and fresh seafood restaurants and sports activities such as parasailing and volleyball.
