

River Severn Mansion

Region: Cotswolds Sleeps: 20 - 30

Overview

This stunning riverside property offers the perfect group retreat. River Severn Mansion offers the ideal space for hen and stag parties, birthday parties, family celebrations and friend's get-togethers! Boasting beautifully furnished rooms and breath-taking views, along with an indoor, heated swimming pool and a games room, there is something for everyone to enjoy! Set in half an acre of land, the property benefits from views across the River Severn, such that you can enjoy views of the surfers riding the Severn Bore and the calming sounds of water.

The River Severn Mansion is approached via a gravelled driveway, with electric gates and security, there is ample off-road parking for the whole group. On approach, the house offers a quintessential charm and elegance and as you step through the front door the warm atmosphere of the property continues to be evident. You can choose to cook for yourselves or be catered for whilst putting your feet up, lighting the open fires and remembering what quality time with your friends and family is all about! The house provides abundant space for everyone to spend time together as well as to finding moments of peace and quiet to yourself. Throughout the property there are four reception rooms, including a sitting room with a wood burning stove, a spacious dining room, a kitchen/breakfast room, four bath/shower rooms, two cloakrooms and nine bedrooms. You will also find a separate lodge house, with a games room with table tennis, a pool table and table football, so the championships can begin from the moment you arrive! Downstairs there is a cinema room and space for two more guests to sleep.

The luxurious heated indoor swimming pool has French doors opening to the garden with access to the River Severn. The garden itself provides a tranquil setting for the whole group, with outdoor seating, sun loungers and a lawned area, all in view of the glistening waters of the river. River Severn Mansion is the perfect setting for a magical holiday, a place to spend time with the people you love, eat delicious food and give yourself a bit of well-deserved pampering.
