Location & Local Information

Villa Espelhar is located only a ten-minute drive away from the beautiful destination of Albufeira, a former fishing port where visitors will be delighted to discover the plethora of fantastic restaurants and bars around, and the lively nightlife seen on 'the strip.' On the strip, Albufeira's reputation for being the most vibrant town in the Algarve is undeniable.

Travellers will find plenty of places to dine and to party. Libertos Lounge Club is a lively cosmopolitan bar that takes inspiration from the world renowned and buzzing nights of Ibiza and boasts a luxurious and classy white décor. Libertos is known for its fantastic champagne and cocktail menu, as well as providing a lively atmosphere with live music.

Wild & Co is a traditional Steak House also on the strip. Visitors can indulge in some of the best steaks in the region, with charcoal grilled meats and traditional Portuguese dishes also being an option. The venue is child-friendly and has a delicious and extensive menu which guests can choose from while gazing out at the marvellous sea views.

For those looking for a calmer way to enjoy the Algarve, Silves is a quaint fortified town in western Algarve that attracts visitors for its quiet and peaceful environment.

The town's ancient red brick castle is a splendid example of Arab military architecture which is representative of the region's Arab occupation between the 8th and the 12th centuries. The area also has a bustling market, a gothic cathedral that was previously a mosque and plenty of charm.
