Location & Local Information

Villa Isaura is located in the Aroeira resort nearby the coastal town of Caparica. For travellers looking to explore some of the region's history, the Roman Ruins of Troia are a magnificent site.

They are the ruins of a small fish salting factory that dates all the way back to the 1st and 2nd centuries. The ruins used to play an integral part in how Rome produced food for their citizens and how the country traded salted fish.

The ruins are ideal for hiking in a while discovering history. Visitors will get to explore the salting factory, the vast cemetery, a mausoleum and the baths. There is also a catamaran available from Sétubal that provides views of a portion of the ruins.

Costa da Caparica is only a 20-minute drive from Villa Isaura, a resort town that is bustling at the weekends and relaxing during the week. During the daytime, visitors will be delighted to see fishing boats selling freshly caught fish that can be tasted in the great selection of restaurants in the town.

At night, the lively resort town comes to life with exciting and buzzing beach parties. The beaches of the area are also famous for surfing as they contain endless large waves.

Fonta da Telha is another excellent beach only a 10-minute drive from the villa. Situated in the middle of vast and charming woodland, Fonta da Telha is the place to go for a family beach day.

The beach possesses great deep white sand and crystal-clear sea water. Sun loungers and umbrellas are available to hire, and tasty cocktails are served at the fantastic beach bar.
