The city of Girona, located in Spain's northeastern Catalonia region, beside the River Onyar, must be visited. It's known for its medieval architecture, walled Old Quarter (Barri Vell) and the Roman remains of the Força Vella fortress. Landscaped gardens line the Passeig Arqueològic, a walkway following the Old Quarter's medieval walls, which include watchtowers with sweeping views, leaving nothing to be desired. Known as Catalonia's most charming city, Girona is a great place to explore.
