Overview

Nestled in countryside on the edge of San Carlos village and set within lush gardens, Casa Daneille is an enchanting villa that's full of rustic charm.

Reflecting the leafy and earthy beauty of its surroundings, this holiday home's décor and access to outside spaces is like a breath of fresh air. Casa Daneille features immaculate white walls throughout and furnishings made from natural materials in every room.

The accommodation in this traditional Ibizan home is set across one floor with different heights. The spacious open plan living space has a lovely flow. By the main patio doors sits an area with comfortable sofa, wooden footstools and television. Sharing the space is a working stove, perfect for creating cosy evenings in. The beautiful kitchen has a charming country house feel and is fully equipped with modern facilities, as well as access to a pantry. A large dining table seats up to six people and is conveniently located for serving meals as quickly as possible.

The main bedroom has a double bed and an air-conditioned en-suite shower room. There's also a bedroom with single bed which is connected to a bedroom that features two trundle beds. The bedroom with trundle beds has independent access and both have use of a bathroom with shower.

The villa is set within extensive grounds and enjoys a spacious terrace that's accessed directly from many rooms inside. A lovely seating area is partially covered and provides a well-positioned and shaded area to take in country views. Al fresco meals can be enjoyed at the large dining table that will seat the whole family, with a portable barbecue close by. A smaller table and chairs provides a quieter spot to start mornings with a coffee and traditional pastry.

The main attraction of the terrace is the private swimming pool that's surrounded by a selection of sun loungers. This area offers idyllic views of the surrounding countryside and hills beyond. The walled, Mediterranean gardens are a delight to stroll around and make you feel as if you've discovered a private, lush paradise.

Location & Local Information

Take a short stroll from the villa and you'll arrive into the heart of San Carlos. It's a small but popular village, having been a hippy haven since the 60s and 70s. There's a lovely, laid-back atmosphere wherever you go, with a sense of time stood still in many areas. Some remote houses don't even receive post and have to collect it from letter boxes that are built into a wall at a local bar. Amenities to be found in the village include restaurants, cafes, bakeries, and a small range of shops. There's also a typical Ibiza whitewashed church to visit, as well as a colourful weekly hippy market that's held every Saturday.

Cala Llenya is just over a 5-minute drive away from the villa and is a great place to enjoy a day out by the sea with the family. With white sands and clear, shallow waters, it's ideal for relaxing on the beach and swimming or snorkelling. There are picnic areas under the pine trees that dot the valley behind the beach, as well as restaurants if you prefer to sample some local food. Cala Llenya never gets too crowded, so it's an ideal alternative to some of the busier beaches during peak season.

Around 20 minutes north of the villa is Ibiza Horse Valley, close to the village of San Juan. Meet your instructors in the village and then head into the valley to be introduced to their group of rescue horses. Groups of up to eight people can enjoy this unforgettable experience for around four hours, which includes grooming your own horse and going out on a 2-hour ride around the mountains.
