

Villa Calo Bay

Region: Cala d'Or Sleeps: 10

Overview

Villa Calo Bay is an elegant, refined and majestic home, standing regally within its grounds, this large, two storey property offers sublime tranquillity, privacy and comfort, all just a stone's throw from the centre of Cala d'Or and the resort's facilities.

For the perfect blend of seclusion and resort life, Villa Calo Bay is a restorative haven - a retreat from the busy shops and beaches, with expansive, sumptuous grounds and expansive, verdant lawns, topped by the full-length pool and abundant outdoor dining areas.

Framed by swaying palm trees, bright flowering plants and tropical foliage, this hidden gem will offer a stunning holiday home for guests who want to spread out enjoy the tranquil, understated privacy at Villa Calo Bay.

The pool is set within large patio with sun loungers and views across the gardens, while there is a chic covered outdoor lounge, very much in keeping with the local style; finished with tasteful lounge furnishings - a cool spot to enjoy lunch when the midday heat becomes too much.

The whitewashed facade, with an array of balconies, and arched veranda entrances, with a flat roof is very much with a nod to the local Mallorca architecture.

The interiors provide understated luxury, with a blend of contemporary and sleek finishes, interspersed with traditional features such as exposed timber beams and wooden bannisters, terracotta floor tiles and arched windows.

This home has an abundance of character and charm decked out with solid wood, antique and modern furniture along with exciting artwork and artefacts; it offers a comfortable and home-like, yet very local feeling home.

The open plan living space is a cosy, welcoming and warm area, both cool in the summer and warm in the winter, it provides the ultimate relaxing corner for downtime at the end of a long and busy day.

With low ceilings, exposed timber beams, flagstone flooring and stone fireplace, there is very much a farmhouse appeal to this space. There are options for informal, or formal dining tables, with ample space for the family or group to spread out.

Indoor and outdoor living blend very seamlessly, by large French doors - light pours in; both dazzling outdoor sun traps and indoor cosy farmhouse style interiors provide a beautiful contrast.

The kitchen is a sleek and modern affair; glossy handleless units, top range appliances and slick, contemporary finishes and lighting make this the most modern space in the villa. Well set up for self-catering, with every appliance imaginable as well as dining furniture, meal preparation will be a pleasure.

Villa Calo Bay accommodates ten guests across six bedrooms. The bedrooms are simple, chic and classic; they offer a therapeutic environment and very much meet the needs of a family, with options for twin bedrooms, and a room complete with baby cot and changing table.

Cool, neutral tones and soft greys and creams, together with cotton bed linen and ample natural daylight creates a therapeutic environment away from the bustle of the town.

Dining outdoors will be a classy affair! There is a barbecue, for beautiful evenings underneath the stars with the pool lit up, or breakfasts are overlooking the town as it wakes up.

Villa Calo Bay offers a beautiful, authentically Mallorcan detached holiday home, offering seclusion and space while being in the heart of the resort town Cala d'Or with proximity to the beaches and amenities on its doorstep.

Location & Local Information

All amenities, shops, bars and restaurants are a short walk away from Villa Calo Bay, which is located just a few hundred yards from the main marina in Cala d'Or, on a quiet side street.

Cala d'Or is today a smart and refined resort town; it is located about sixty kilometres east of the airport and Palma city.

Formerly, Cala d'Or was a traditional, small, Mallorca finishing village which has over the years expanded. The town is nestled alongside a series of coves, the largest of which is called Cala Llonga, which has been developed into a large marina which splits the city into two.

The town centre offers a pretty and vibrant pedestrianised shopping zone, with a good selection of eateries and bars.

The beach at Cala Gran is the largest in town; sun loungers, parasols and pedaloes can be hired at the beach. There are also ample other beaches in the region further afield which are worth exploring.

Water sports and beach life are very much central to Majorca.

Cycling is a significant part of the tourism trade in this part of Majorca - it has become a central hub for those wanting to make the most of the diverse array of northern routes and rugged, beautiful scenery.

With safe, yet challenging, mountain roads and year-round temperate weather, cycling enthusiasts will find themselves among a like-minded biking community.

Hiking is likewise very much a draw for visitors to the region; an exceptionally beautiful hike being the route to the former monastery Lluc, situated in the Tramuntana mountains - along yet wonderfully rewarding path offering unspoilt views of luscious nature.

Golfers will be very much at home with an array of golf courses to select from.

Whether it be pilates, or paddle boarding, kite surfing or chartering a private boat to explore hidden corners of the coastline, the opportunities for sports and activities at all levels are endless.

Not so much known for its nightlife, this corner of Mallorca is very much a family-friendly destination, however many of the restaurants offer live music and party nights. The range of eateries is diverse, while all ages will be welcome in restaurants.
