

Villa Zavanna

Region: Javea Sleeps: 11

Overview

Spacious and with stunning panoramic valley views, Villa Zavanna is located close to Moraira and Jávea on the Costa Blanca. With five bedrooms and lots of outdoor space including a private pool and gardens, it's the ideal choice for a family holiday.

You enter the villa via electric gates and will see that the immaculately kept gardens feature some seating areas and patios. Sun loungers and parasols take their rightful place on the poolside terrace, and there is also a summer kitchen with a barbecue and fridge just a few steps away, as well as a dining area looking out on the pool.

Wonderful views across the verdant valley make it a real pleasure to relax at Villa Margarita, with vineyards all around and the sea in the distance. Patio doors lead inside where you have a large living and dining space with leather sofas and chairs, a glass-topped coffee table, and a flatscreen HD TV with satellite channels and DVD.

Through an archway, an open-plan kitchen with breakfast bar complements this space, complete with granite worktops, oven and ceramic hob, fridge freezer, dishwasher and microwave. On the same level, you have a double and twin bedroom, and a shared shower room.

Upstairs, there are three double bedrooms including the master suite with its king-size double bed, air-conditioning and en-suite shower room. Another double and twin and a family bathroom can also be found on this floor.

The villa is just a 5-minute walk from the nearest bar, with beaches, a golf course and the town of Moraira just a short drive away. This extremely pleasant town is the place to be for chilling out down at the beach and has countless places to grab a drink or a bite to eat. Positioned roughly halfway between Calpe and Jávea, you will have no shortage of pretty areas to visit if you take a short drive along the coast in either direction.

Location & Local Information

Once a small fishing village, now a popular resort, you can be sure of a warm welcome in Moraira. On the south eastern coast of Spain, roughly halfway between Alicante and Valencia, this Costa Blanca gem is a relaxing place to spend some time, with an attractive marina and easy-going beach life down at the Playa de l'Ampolla.

The town is very much geared up for visitors, so you'll find everything you are likely to need for an easy stay. You have banks and shops just a stone's throw from the seafront and, of course, many restaurants, cafés and bars to tempt you. Your only problem will be deciding which of the waterfront terraces to dine on, such is the abundance of choice in Moraira. Quality is good too, with many of the town's restaurants recommended by Michelin, and some of them star-rated.

Festivals held throughout the year will give you a taste of real Spanish culture, and the surrounding area offers the chance to visit traditional villages as well as larger resorts and cities. Among the closest places of interest are pretty Jávea (certainly worth an excursion) and, slightly further up the coast, Denia with its ancient castle and ferry links to Ibiza and Mallorca.

If you fancy heading inland, there are few more beautiful spots than the mountainous Serra de Bèrnia i Ferrer, perfect for hiking amidst stunningly rugged scenery – so be sure to take your camera as well as your walking boots. You have another towering peak just north of Jávea too, in the form of Mount Montgó – the wonderful natural park which bears its name stretches all the way to the coast.
