Villa Cariana is spacious and modern throughout. The clean lines and fresh, white decor are perfectly complemented by the rich wood and terracotta accents that give Villa Cariana a warm, rustic touch. The living area with its solid wood roof beams features a traditional fireplace, flat-screen TV, and cosy soft furnishings, providing the perfect space for chilling with the family - so why not wind down after your travels with a glass of wine and a movie on your first night!

The light and airy dining room is separate from the kitchen and living room, offering an ideal space for enjoying busy breakfasts before heading out onto the gorgeously secluded outdoor terrace. This sunny and welcoming spot features a decking area with plenty of seating, beautiful potted blooms, and a view of your own private pool.

The kitchen at Villa Cariana is well-equipped with everything you're going to need to cater for the whole family during your stay, including an induction hob, large microwave, American-style fridge freezer, Nespresso coffee machine, a filtered water tap....and barbeque tools for all that alfresco dining you'll be doing!

Guests staying at Villa Cariana will be delighted to know that there is a self-contained games room, where you'll be able to enjoy a game of pool or relax on the sofa in front of the large internet TV. The room overlooks an outdoor table tennis area and terrace, a great spot for catching the evening sun.

Also situated on the ground floor of the villa is a handy laundry room with a washing machine and plenty of clothes-hanging space, as well as a WC and shower room. It is on this floor that you'll find two of the villa's bedrooms - a large double and a twin, with two more twin rooms being located on the first floor, along with the master suite, which features a super king-size bed and an ensuite bathroom. All of the bedrooms at Villa Cariana are bright and airy and decorated in light, neutral tones, promising a refreshing and comfortable night's sleep.

Location & Local Information

Villa Cariana is ideally located in the peaceful residential area of Gotmar, just five minutes from the popular fishing village turned resort town of Puerto Pollensa - a place often described as a 'little slice of paradise. Overlooked by the Tramuntana Mountains, Puerto Pollensa offers a relaxed, cosmopolitan vibe, with a pretty promenade and marina and plenty of fine-dining restaurants and bars, all situated around a horse-shoe shaped bay. The area is home to some beautiful beaches, and even though these narrow, sandy stretches are popular during the summer months, it's never too noisy or busy here. Puerto Pollensa beach is the most popular with families and has great amenities such as umbrella rental, sports facilities and lots of cafes, bars and restaurants - but we definitely recommend doing a bit of beach hopping while you are here!

D'Albercruix beach is ideal for those looking for peace and seclusion, while Can Cap Bou beach is a must if you enjoy watersports - and is especially popular with kite surfers. Cala Boquer is another secluded beach with crystal clear waters and surrounded by mountains that offer great hiking opportunities for those who want to do more than lay around soaking up the sun!

If you fancy a day of sightseeing, be sure to take a break from the sea, sand and surfing and head into the old town of Pollensa. Here you'll find a vibrant mix of cultures that have influenced the architecture and monuments in the town over thousands of years, including the Calvari Steps and the medieval church and watchtower. The town is small and easy to explore on foot, but be aware that it is a steep and uneven walk, so good footwear is a must!

After a day of wandering the cobbled streets, looking at the fresh produce in the market and marvelling at the views, be sure to stop at a local bar or cafe for juice, coffee or wine....before heading to one of the many restaurants in the town for traditional Mediterranean fares such as Tumbet (a vegetarian dish of aubergines, potatoes, red peppers, garlic, tomatoes and love oil), or perhaps a fresh seafood dish, salad or burger.
