

Villa Jesenia

Region: Lanzarote Sleeps: 6 - 8

Overview

Villa Jesenia is found in a peaceful, residential corner of the popular resort of Puerto del Carmen. Sleeping eight people, this private villa and pool has a welcoming, rustic interior.

Most of your accommodation is on the ground floor. Facilities are generous with four bedrooms and four bathrooms. The master room has striking furnishings with a dark wood floor and enjoys an en-suite bathroom. From here you have direct access out to your sun terrace and private pool. One of the twin rooms, complete with shower room, is located on the lower floor and there are a further two bedrooms, one double with en-suite on the ground floor. A separate bathroom is available for all guests to use.

The living and dining areas are attractively arranged across a split-level, open-plan space. The country house décor adds to the relaxing atmosphere in Villa Jesenia, just perfect for sharing with friends and family.

The well-equipped kitchen is the right size for rustling up meals for eight, but you'll have to decide whether to opt for the cosy dining room indoors or move outside onto your delightful covered terrace and dine pool-side instead. This welcome shade is where you'll retreat to for al fresco mealtimes and afternoon siestas. If you're a sun seeker, take your pick of sun loungers around your beautiful private pool. And relax!

Your inviting pool is surrounded by attractive palm trees and Mediterranean plants, all adding to the privacy and tranquillity found at Villa Jesenia. Splash with the family for as long as you like in your private pool, or just simply soak up the sun all afternoon.

Beyond the delights of Villa Jesenia, you're only a twenty-minute walk to the old town and harbour in Puerto del Carmen. Here you'll find restaurants, shops, visitor attractions, water sports and Playa Grande's sandy beach. There is so much within walking distance of this private villa and pool, it really is a wonderful base for a relaxing family holiday.

Location & Local Information

Los Mojones is the quiet residential area where Villa Jesenia enjoys an elevated position and tantalising glimpses of the sea. It's only a twenty-minute walk to the old town and harbour at Puerto del Carmen, where you can watch nautical comings and goings from a waterfront café or restaurant.

Playa Grande is your nearest beach. It's a long stretch of golden sand and inviting sea with umbrellas and sun loungers for hire. You can easily spend the day here as it's only five minutes to the town centre's shops and there are water sports and inflatables available directly from the beach, keeping everyone entertained.

Take either a bus or water taxi around the bay to visit Puerto Calero. This smart harbour town attracts sleek-looking yachts and keen sailors from all over the world. Find a table at one of the restaurants lining the marina, and people-watch your way through the afternoon. Back in Puerto del Carmen, shoppers will love Biosfera Plaza shopping centre. As well as a great selection of clothes shops, it doubles as an entertainment venue with a mini-golf course, 6D cinema experience, bars and restaurants!

Lanzarote's culture and historical heritage are linked to fishing, Catholicism and paying homage to their patron saints. Look out for the fiestas in different areas throughout the summer. There's a carnival in Puerto del Carmen on 16th July and in Arrecife on 25th August. If you'd like to toast the celebrations with a locally produced wine, Lanzarote's Malvasia wines are internationally recognised and a perfect companion to seafood dishes and fish.
