Modern and antique furnishings stand side by side alongside the impressive 21st century kitchen which complements features such as the living room's grand 18th century fire-place.

Gather your loved ones outside for a long lunch under the shade of the ancient trees or simply find your own secret spot in the vast gardens filled with fig trees, oleander, lavender and olives. Colours spill out of the terracotta pots by the original well and fountain and little stone benches or deck chairs can be found across the estate. The shaded terrace along the south façade is the perfect place for your morning coffee as you chat with friends or take a dip in the inviting heated swimming pool, bordered by pristine lawns and cypress trees.
