

Les Rochers

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 6 - 10

Overview

A simply stunning and unique place in one of Provence's most incredible regions, Les Rochers will astound guests with its natural beauty and history. Set a stone's throw from the heart of one of France's Plus Beaux Villages, Les Baux de Provence, you are surrounded by olive groves and vineyards so typical of the enchanting Les Apilles National Park.

Built into the rocks of Les Baux, this partially caved home dates back to the Roman times and has been beautifully restored to give it a modern yet characteristic ambience. Contemporary art and designer furniture perfectly complement exposed stone walls, wood beamed ceilings and open fireplaces. The impressive master bedroom, with its own terrace and fireplace, features a Roman inspired bathroom whilst there are two pretty en-suite doubles downstairs by the pool. Here you'll also find a separate and simpler two-bedroom guest-house which is made available for seven guests or more.

The open-plan living space and beautiful kitchen lead out to a grand upper terrace where you can dine or lounge together, enjoying Provençal wine and gazing out at the panoramic views surrounding you.

Wander down the stone steps to reach the dazzling swimming pool where long afternoons can be spent by the summer kitchen preparing local food on the plancha and dining in the shade around a table carved from local stone. Afterwards take a dip in the curved infinity pool staring out to the spectacular scenery.

Keen walkers can wander up the hill to Les Baux or it's just a three-minute drive; here you can explore the pretty squares and discover the fortified-château before finding a lovely restaurant for lunch or follow one of the many walking trails around the village and beyond. Drive to nearby Mausanne to pick up some delights from the local bakeries, deli, butchers and fish-mongers (also an oyster wine bar!) and sample some of the amazing olive oil produced in the village. You'll also find some brilliant restaurants here from charming bistros and pizzerias to Michelin starred establishments.

You are of course in the heart of the formidable Apilles National Park with idyllic villages such as St-Rémy and Eygalières plus Van Gogh's precious Arles so near. Spend the day visiting Avignon, the stunning Luberon region or mesmerising Camargue.

Whether relaxing on your terrace or exploring nearby, the diverse yet stunning landscapes of this captivating part of southern France are yours to discover.
