

Chalet Hugo

Region: Alpe d'Huez Sleeps: 15

Overview

Beauty, convenience and comfort combine delightfully in this sublime seven-bed chalet in the perfectly picturesque setting on the slopes of Alpe D'Huez.

Three storeys of Alaine charm await you inside this type of chalet. There is a perfectly warm and cosy living area with space for all the group to gather in front of the fireplace – and there's even complimentary firewood so you can get your feet up and get warm the moment you arrive! A large dining table stretches across one side of the chalet, offering space for everyone to enjoy mealtimes together.

As well as this, an American-style kitchen is fully equipped with all modern amenities, including a stove, oven, microwave, dishwasher, fridge, plus all crockery and pans, ensuring you can prepare a meal together, saving you a trip out if you feel like a cosy night in.

In this chalet type there are seven fantastic bedrooms, accommodating up to fifteen guests, with one or two on the ground floor, a range of bed options and all with en suite shower or bathrooms. All of the rooms embody the same soft charm of the Savoyard style, with soothing lighting and beautiful décor.

In each of the seven bathrooms, you will find complimentary dressing gowns, slippers and toiletries for all guests. There is also a wonderful terrace with incredible views of the surrounding landscape. Be sure to enjoy it with your morning coffee or perhaps an afternoon aperitif.

Chalet Hugo also offers guests the opportunity to relax in the sauna after a day out on the mountain – the perfect way to unwind! With both a terrace and private parking, you have plenty of space and very little to worry about during your stay.

Just 500m away is the main ski lift, served by a free shuttle bus from your chalet throughout the day, keeping you easily connected, while the centre of Alpe d'Huez itself is about 1 km away. Within this radius, there are numerous bars, restaurants and boutiques. Resort also has as a swimming pool, leisure centre, ice rink and cinema. There's even a free shuttle bus which frequently runs to the resort centre, keeping you easily connected.

What we love

- This beautiful Alpine style creates a warm, cosy atmosphere, made all the better by the sauna and fireplace, with firewood provided
- As well as being a perfect location for skiing in the winter, the region, and Alpe D'Huez in particular, regularly hosts events and races on its daunting slopes
- Enjoy the best view of the mountains by day and the stars by night in this unbeatable location
- With 17 black slopes, 39 red slopes, 38 blue slopes and 41 green slopes, this is a truly excellently equipped ski resort

What you should know...

- Please note the photos are indicative of the style of the chalets featured, however the interiors of the chalet you are allocated may differ.
- Ski-out includes a very short blue run down to the Bergers lift, so complete novice skiers are better off getting a free shuttle to the ski-school meeting point
- You're a little way out from the local village, with a walk back up the hill to get home – unless you take advantage of the free shuttle bus!
