Location & Local Information

Villa Rumi is ideally placed in the centre of Kalkan, overlooking the bay, the town itself and the glistening turquoise coastline. The old fishing town, turned vibrant holiday destination, is a treasure trove of narrow streets, whitewashed houses and inviting boutiques. It's also famous for its local bazaars (markets) selling everything from handmade rugs to fresh produce, harbourside bars and rooftop restaurants serving a variety of delicious cuisine. Look out for Turkish specialities like gozleme (thin dough crepes) with cheese and spinach fillings or hearty meat and seafood mezes.

For days spent relaxing on the sands or swimming in the sea, the villa is within a short drive or bus ride (Dolmus) from Kaputas Beach with crystal-clear waters and Patara Beach, a 12-mile long stretch of shoreline that's also a National Park. Both have day beach clubs as well as calm waters that are ideal for swimming. There's also the opportunity to take part in water sports like sea kayaking, parasailing and scuba diving, or jump on a traditional wooden gullet for a trip around the bays.

By boat, you can also visit the small island of Kekova where you can snorkel and explore the part-sunken ruins of Dolchiste, an ancient town which was destroyed by an earthquake during the 2nd century. You can get there via glass-bottomed boat from Kas, a 30-minute drive from Kalkan. Lively Kas also has the impressive site of ancient Antiphellos, with still-visible ruins including a theatre. For more fun day trips, you could head to the seaside resort town of Fethiye, a one-hour drive away. It has plenty of top-notch restaurants, shops and fascinating cultural sites that are well worth a visit.

- The villa has a fully-equipped kitchen for dining in. There are local supermarkets and shops within a 10-minute walk

What you should know...

- The walk into the centre of town is downhill all the way. Therefore, it's a bit harder on the way back
