

Villa Gibbes

Region: Speightstown Sleeps: 4 - 6

Overview

Villa Gibbes is a grand and tropical typical Caribbean designed villa with lovely flourishing gardens, a large glistening free-form swimming pool and captivating coastal views.

Boasting lovely and dynamic architecture before you've even stepped inside, this holiday home dazzles with a bright white exterior complemented by light brown doors. The front of the villa is beautifully gated with palm trees and exotic bright flowers making for pleasant surroundings.

At the back of the home, guests will discover a sizeable covered terrace which is home to a dining area with an elegant glass dining table, magnificently enhanced by flowers. The terrace also has a seating and lounging area, which is perfect for indulging in snacks and drinks while unwinding.

The inside living areas contain high ceilings which make for ample living space and boast a clean and fresh aesthetic. The kitchen is contemporary with rustic wooden touches and incorporates a large fridge and an island in its centre that's great for socialising whilst preparing food. The kitchen also has a door which leads directly out onto the garden.

The detached holiday villa is set over two storeys and has two bedrooms on the ground floor, with the master suite spread over the entirety of the first floor. The bright and spacious bedrooms are bursting with tropical flair and hold enough space to really unwind before bedtime. The villa contains a small study or working area with books, a desk and a computer where you can catch up on work from home or simply use to organise your days in Barbados.
