Location & Local Information

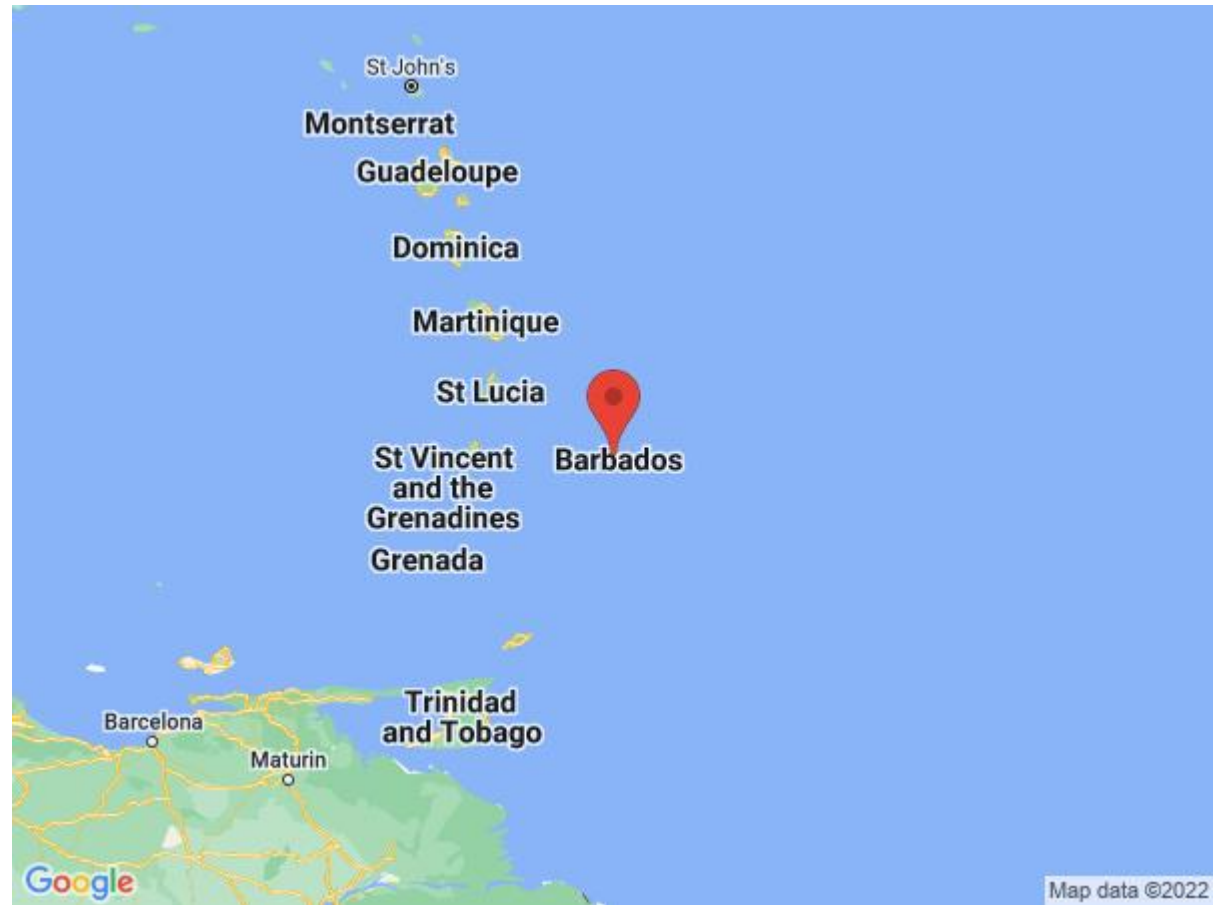

The holiday villa is located in the Parish of Saint James. Coral Reef Hotel is nearby and possesses a colonial and classic Caribbean style. Guests will be able to indulge in the hotel's spa services which include facials, massages and yoga. You can also dine in the on-site restaurant which overlooks the sea. The restaurant serves fresh seafood and traditional Caribbean dishes, and hosts live entertainment including limbo dancing, folk dancing and fire eating, every evening in the winter and five evenings per week throughout the summer.

Sand Piper Restaurant provides another great dining choice. You'll be captivated by the surrounding tropical gardens and ponds, and the tables lit by spotlights from the ceiling. The restaurant fuses European and Asian cuisine to create dishes served on the deck with waves calmly crashing in the background. The mouth-watering menu incorporates poached lobster, linguini and chicken liver as starters and lemon garlic tuna and pan-roasted salmon for mains, that's just naming a few. They also possess an extensive drink and cocktail list.

Only a 20-minute drive from the villa lies artist Rafza Nehaul's working studio and art gallery on the island's capital, Bridgetown. Using natural materials, Rafza creates unique and vibrant works that are occasionally three-dimensional - a must-see example of local Bajan talent and artistry!
