

Villa Concetta

Region: Pine Cliffs Resort Sleeps: 10

Overview

Villa Concetta is sleek and contemporary villa finished to an impeccable standard, enjoying private and tranquil gardens, set within the world-class Pine Cliffs Resort.

Pine Cliffs Resort is a luxurious, award-winning resort; among the finest in Europe. This resort village is an exquisite haven of tranquillity and style, offering fully-serviced amenities nestled on the glistening coastline of the Algarve.

Guests can enjoy a sumptuous blend of privacy and seclusion, away from the bustle of the crowds, along with the unlimited convenience and thoughtful comforts provided by the wider resort; from spas to a range of restaurants, to golf and tennis to children's entertainment, this resort has guests' every comfort covered, whilst offering as much discretion and privacy as guests desire.

Villa Concetta is a bright and breezy home, infused with natural day-light and a simple, yet effective neutral palette of whites, soft greys and accents of azure. This is every inch the fresh, modern, white-washed Alragvean home; guests can simply arrive, and relax, in the knowledge that every detail has been covered.

In a nod to the traditional style, this charming home comprises terracotta tiled sloping roofs and elegantly covered veranda - ideal for al fresco dining. Indoor and outdoor living blend seamlessly, while guests can enjoy pristine private gardens with a stunning pool-side and lounging area, complete with parasols and chic, wicker loungers.

The interiors are unfussy, tasteful and understated; the fresh and light ambience makes for an immediately restorative stay. Guests will enjoy the informality of wonderful outdoor meals on the terrace; perhaps a breakfast of fresh coffee and pastries after a refreshing morning swim, or an evening meal under the stars.

There is one sumptuous master bedroom with a king-size bed, which is elegantly finished with plush fabrics, crisp cotton linen and sophisticated accessories while retaining the unpretentious feel of the villa. There are a further three bedrooms with twin beds, meaning eight guests can enjoy this light-filled home! A further two guests can be accommodated in the guest house in its double bedroom with queen-size bed and adjacent bathroom, perfect for those looking for a bit of peace and quiet away from the group.

The living space is a charming blend of wonderful traditional style flagstone floor, open fireplace and sleek glass doors. There is ample space for “downtime” at the end of a busy day and the traditional arch style cloistered walls offer a semi-open plan feel.

A chef-worthy kitchen is a steely grey and uber-modern affair, offering glossy white units and a centre island, this kitchen would be at home in an interiors magazine, epitomising minimal, chic and understated design at its best!

At Villa Concetta, guests can enjoy the seclusion of a private home, along with all the additional luxuries characteristic of a boutique hotel, such as round the clock room service and housekeeping - set within such an effortlessly stylish and naturally elegant, unfussy home!

Location & Local Information

Villa Concetta is set within the heart of the Algarve, which is known for its golf courses, water sports opportunities and wonderful, unspoilt nature.

Villa Concetta and the wider resort have ample activities to keep visitors busy without having to venture far! With golf and tennis on its doorstep, an array of restaurants, cafe and children's entertainment, guests can enjoy not having to venture too far.

When the wider world beckons, the Algarve is rich with history and bustling, interesting market towns.

Vilamoura is known for its large marina and golf courses. For history buffs, the Cerro da Vila archaeological museum has a ruined Roman villa with bathhouses and mosaics. Red cliffs line Falesia beach, which stretches west to the fishing village Olhos de Agua.

Venturing a little further, Albufeira is worth a day trip. Albufeira is the liveliest and busiest town on Portugal's beautiful southern Algarve coastline. Previously a modest fishing village, it is now a well known coastal town brimming with holiday potential. Traditional charm by way of original Moorish flair, the 'Old Town' offers a little taste of historic and sleepy small-town authenticity. A stone's throw from the quiet white-washed streets you will find the dynamic and edgy "Strip" for a buzzing nightlife experience.

Old fortress remnants dating from Roman times and historical charm nestle alongside contemporary, sleek bars and restaurants. Both the beaches and wonderful climate are what draw visitors back year after year. The marina in Albufeira is unmissable with its candy-coloured apartments. Found on the western outskirts of the town, this is an ideal spot to while away an afternoon with ice cream or cool drink, watching the boats go by.

The beach at Albufeira, as well as others along the coastline, are second-to-none. Whether it be long, lazy days on the loungers or taking advantage of the many water sports including deep sea fishing, windsurfing, diving or dolphin watching, the region is rich with natural beauty.

For those who wish to venture further afield, day trips to Silves, Faro and Loule are worth considering. Boat and coastal tours offer a leisurely pace for exploring

Whether it be pretty historic streets and traditional plazas, a business golfing trip or nightlife hedonism, this corner of Southern Portugal has it covered.
