

Crawford Apartment

Region: Marylebone & The West End Sleeps: 6

Overview

This luminescent and sleek apartment, just moments from the boutiques and cafés of Marylebone High Street, epitomises timeless grace.

A refined and stylish 'home-from-home', Crawford Apartment offers tasteful, yet comfortable, accommodation for up to six guests arranged across two bedrooms. Set in the heart of central London, just moments from one of its most attractive parks, Regents Park, this is a uniquely chic choice for a metropolitan visit.

There are two living rooms, one of which offers a double sofa bed, and both of which are infused with natural daylight and elegant, classical European-style furnishings. The main "drawing room" showcases a sleek, neutral palette, with comfortable cream sofas, polished brass mirrors and frames, and original fireplace.

The second living room, a "snug," offers powdery aqua and pale French-blue upholstered furnishings for a very "genteel" style, interspersed with the more playful and contemporary perspex coffee table and bright art.

The very classical style is encountered throughout this light-filled home, with its characteristic large, original windows.

There are two sumptuous bedrooms; one of these provides a double bed, and the second provides a small double; there are two hotel-grade bathrooms, finessed with grace and quiet refinement. The palette is so soft and muted, creating two exceedingly calm bedrooms - an antidote to the bustling city outside.

The Master bedroom is refined and striking in its simplicity both have pretty wrought iron beds and antique style dressing tables; the second bedroom is "bijou" - compact and sweetly finished, ideal for children or a sole adult.

The ever so avant-garde kitchen is decked out with a striking monochrome tiled floor, chartreuse-toned silk curtains and steely, slate-grey fittings. Brimming with style and light, the kitchen leads directly to an Italian style courtyard, resplendent with olive-green wrought iron garden furniture, a statue feature reminiscent of an Italian villa, framed with trellis and potted plants. This space provides a stunning ambience for evening drinks or nibbles after a busy day of sight-seeing.

This kitchen is brimming with charisma, and provides a semi open plan dining space for four; while the top of the range appliances, sleek coffee machine and perspex dining chairs provide the contemporary finishes to a very classic apartment.

Within such a wonderfully ornate home, all the modern touches are present: guests can rest assured they will find WIFI, satellite and cable television.

Crawford Apartment offers a private home for complete independence along with all the hallmarks of hotel-grade luxury: personal welcome, on-call host assistance, five-star quality fluffy towels and crisp cotton bedlinen and sumptuous toiletries. A classic home with a contemporary twist!

Location & Local Information

Crawford Apartment is set among the gorgeous Georgian streets of the southern side of what is nowadays known as Marylebone Village. Four minutes to Marylebone High Street and just a short walk to the West End and Oxford Street, Crawford Apartment is in a quiet and refined enclave, just a few moments' walks from the "buzz" of local boutiques and attractions, but tranquil in its village-like appeal.

Marylebone High Street is one of London's most chic and cutting-edge shopping streets; awash with independent and achingly cool new brands, interior designers, cool kids fashion labels and abundant eateries!

At the smarter end, the Orrery is a sleek environment to enjoy French cuisine, while FishWorks is a fun pit-stop, or for a posh sandwich on-the-go, Daylesford Organic or Paul's will hit the spot.

This shopping hub has drawn together many quality brands and independent businesses, without the usual high street bustle. The Conran Shop is always worth a look around, for cool accessories and the latest designs; and La Fromagerie is a charming stop for an array of sumptuous cheeses.

For coffee or a glass of wine, many of the old-school pubs in the area attract a local client clientele; Coco de Mer draws in a young crowd and is a fun summer pub which, in true London style, spills into the surrounding pavements.

Daunts Books is always a hallmark of a quality shopping area in London, while the Wallace Collection on Manchester Square (set in Hertford House) is a collection of European paintings, miniatures and sculptures as well as French eighteen-century furniture - the original family home of The Marquess of Hertford and Sir Richard Wallace. Taking afternoon tea in the exquisitely light atrium at the Wallace Collection, in true English refinement, with finger sandwiches, scones and champagne is one of life's greatest pleasures; a charming stop in the midst of a busy day!

Fairuz offers wonderful mezze upon mezze of mouth-watering Lebanese food, whilst for a real hidden gem, Portman Square is a private and peaceful spot to get away from it all; this central garden has a lawn, winding paths and children's play area.
