Region: London Sleeps: 6

Overview

Hatton Garden apartment is an airy, well-proportioned lateral home infused with natural daylight and fresh, charismatic design touches. Meticulously executed, with all the hallmarks of quality, this suave and polished home nonetheless offers the personal accents of the designer-host's Brazilian origins: splashes of carnivalesque colour and bright prints.

The open plan living space is tasteful and urbane, whilst being a welcoming retreat after a busy day enjoying all the city has to offer. High ceilings, light-well, polished dark timber floors and immaculately selected furnishings offer accessible luxury for the discerning traveller.

Hatton Garden apartment, named after London's historical jewellery quarter, offers stylish accommodation and architectural finesse, for up to six guests, across three bedrooms and two bathrooms.

This home has an understated ease to it; quietly confident, it has all the trappings of an expert architectural eye, with the panache of natural design flair! The Scandinavian style dining table and bench offers informal dining, whilst the kitchen is strikingly simple, sleek and low-key, whilst offering top-range appliances. Touches of green are ever-present; the indoors and outdoors blend rather effortlessly.

Large French windows lead onto a vibrant balcony, brimming with terracotta potted plants. This is a serene spot within a bustling capital; ideal for guests to enjoy an evening glass of wine as the city lulls into the evening, or a morning coffee with views across the rooftops.

The bedrooms are tranquil, offering meticulous, crisp bedding, whilst being graceful and ever-so calm. Guests can enjoy a characterful ambience that is so removed from hotel anonymity. The walk-in, slate grey shower rooms are of five-star standards, whilst the enormous marble bath is of rock-star proportions! There are two sumptuous double beds and one majestic king size bed. The quirky features will make guests smile, such as bookshelf design wall-paper and poster art!

Every inch the sophisticated city "pad," guests will note the luxury touches such as private lift, bluetooth sound system for getting into the party vibe, and slick quality finishes.

Hatton Garden apartment is finished with verve and polish; offering a characterful, impeccably equipped space for a family or group, with the privacy of an independent home with private outdoor space, along with all the five star hotel touches: host welcome, round the clock host support, toiletries and resort standard towels and linen!

Location & Local Information

Clerkenwell is a trendy mix of historical and local London, with quiet Victorian and Georgian squares, old-school pubs and creative firms and industrial warehouse style apartment conversions jostle together. A vibrant and happening spot, awash with creative types, city workers and a taste of old London by virtue of Smithfield Market and the old silversmithing and jewellery pockets which are still going strong today.

Sleek bars, hip restaurants and indie boutiques have sprung up around Exmouth market. What used to be the heart of industrial London, is today a slick mix of design agencies and exclusive clubs. Many of London's oldest and best gastropubs are in this area, with quality ingredients supplied by Exmouth and Smithfield market - the best of London's old and new!

Quieter on the weekends, visitors will find that they are excellently located, just a short distance to the West end, whilst Hampstead is just a bus ride away.

Charles Dickens Museum is a short distance away, with its imaginative depictions of city life and the smoggy Victorian London streets.

The Barbican and City of London are within walking distance, whilst some lesser-known spots such as the Clockmaker's Museum (an exceptional collection of historic clocks, watches and marine timekeepers) and The Werkstatt (meaning workshop in German - a hub for international designers and architects to create and exhibit) are worth a visit.

Pretty, historic and creative Clerkenwell, fittingly, has its own Design Week; it has always been a hive of creativity and is mentioned in Shakespeare's sonnets and Charles Dicken's Oliver Twist.
