Location & Local Information

Villa Othello is in Coral Bay, a popular holiday spot on Cyprus's southwest coast. It's about 6km north of the city of Paphos. Its rocky headlands and sea caves characterise the serene area, and there's a long stretch of sheltered sandy beach, enclosed by a pair of limestone headlands. The beach boasts opportunities to take part in water sports like sea kayaking, snorkelling and jet skiing. There are also plenty of restaurants, serving everything from meat mezes and fresh seafood to international cuisine, as well as small cafes and bars for afternoon snacks, coffees or evening cocktails.

In Paphos centre, you can head to the boat-lined harbour with waterfront restaurants and Paphos Castle, an ancient Byzantine fort and a favourite spot for evening entertainment like live music. From there, you can follow the coastal road round for a scenic walk along the shore. Paphos centre also has plenty more supermarkets, bakeries and shops to pick up your holiday essentials.

Culture lover? The UNESCO World Heritage Site Tombs of the Kings is a must see. You'll find fantastically-preserved underground tombs and chambers used during the Hellenistic and Roman periods. You can easily get around using the local bus service. Ibrahim Kahn in Paphos Old Town is also a must visit. It's a charming cobbled square with hand-crafted mosaic, jewellery and art boutiques. There's a small taverna there too, serving traditional food like souvlaki and mezes.

For scuba divers (beginner or advanced), top dive sites include Coral Bay harbour, St. Georges Island and St. Georges harbour. At the latter, there's also a small sandy beach you can relax on, caves for you to traverse and a restaurant overlooking the water. From there, you could also visit the Sea Caves in Peyia. Enjoy a walk along the cliffs, swim and snorkel or sunbathe on the rocks. At night, sip cocktails at the restaurant there and enjoy views of Edro III, an 83-metre-long cargo shipwreck.
