

Villa Estefania

Region: Puerto Calero Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Estefania is a sleek and modern townhouse located on the southwest coast of Lanzarote. With its clean lines and bright interior, this home offers a refreshing and uncluttered living space complemented by breathtaking sea views.

The exterior of the villa features a striking white-washed facade, beautifully contrasted by hints of marine blue accents. The seamless integration of indoor and outdoor areas allows for a seamless flow of living spaces. Guests can enjoy the inviting pool area, dine al fresco on the terrace, or relax on the elegant balcony.

Villa Estefania embodies a sense of understated charm and comfort. Upon arrival, guests can instantly unwind, knowing that every need has been carefully considered. The interior spaces are airy and spacious, accommodating up to six guests in three bedrooms spread across three storeys. The mountain views and the vibrant village setting, adorned with swaying palm trees and original stone walls, create a picturesque backdrop.

Outdoor living takes centre stage, offering unforgettable moments. Whether it's enjoying breakfast on the terrace with the refreshing sea breeze, taking a morning swim, or savouring a grilled fish dinner paired with local wines while witnessing the mesmerizing sunset, Villa Estefania sets the stage for memorable experiences.

The interior design is unpretentious and fuss-free, providing a relaxed and effortless holiday ambience. Open-plan living spaces promote an easygoing atmosphere, while modern amenities such as air conditioning, WiFi, and a dishwasher ensure convenience and comfort.

The contemporary kitchen is equipped with top-range appliances, making self-catering a breeze. Villa Estefania embraces a fresh and inviting atmosphere, encouraging guests to embrace the unhurried pace of local life. The bedrooms exude elegance and charm without stealing the spotlight from the magnificent views that surround them.

For an exceptional seaside retreat, Villa Estefania is a remarkable choice. Its stylish and uncomplicated design offers an effortless escape from the crowds, providing a comfortable and welcoming environment to create lasting memories.

What we love

- The scope for stylish outdoor living is unparalleled; French windows give way to a dazzling private terrace-garden with ample loungers, glistening pool and romantic balcony!
- Charming, stylish yet simple interiors which are uncluttered, offer every comfort and ample space for the family to spread out
- The sea views are simply sublime and unparalleled; guests have a front row seat to sumptuous nightly sun-sets across the bay!

What you should know...

- This fantastic townhouse is set across three storeys and is not suitable for those with mobility impairments
- Toddlers will need to be monitored by the pool area, while this home is very child-friendly
- Plenty of excellent amenities are accessible on foot, while a car would be recommended to explore the island's stunning natural beauty further afield (the closest beach is a few kilometres away in Puerto del Carmen)
