The beach is less than 10 minutes away on foot, with plenty of bars and even more restaurants on offer along this stretch of coast.

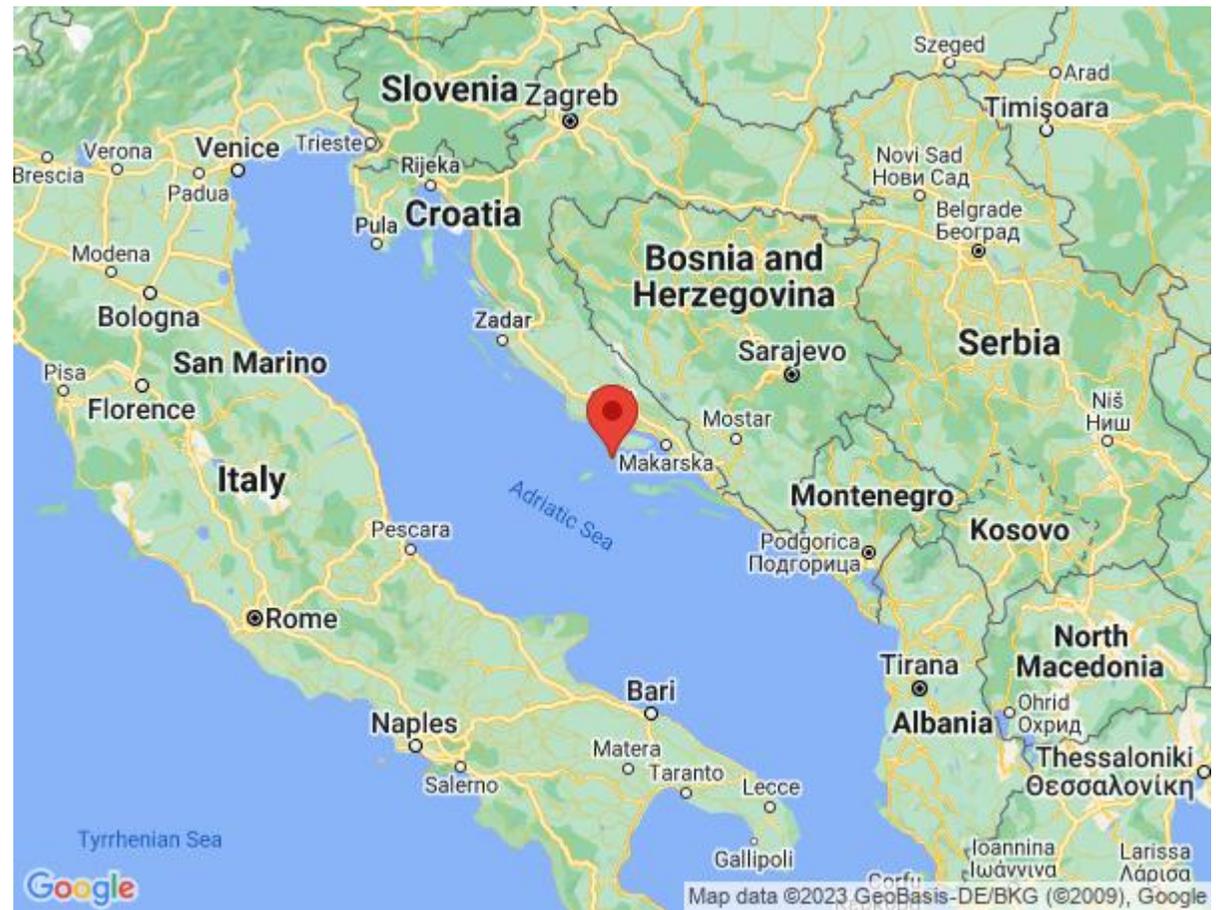

Enjoy a leisurely 10-minute walk down the sea, and you'll find a lovely pebble beach to relax and soak up the views on. Watch small boats pass by on the azure water, and then find out just how inviting the sea is for yourself by going for a swim.

The many trees surrounding the area provides shade. Take a picnic with you or enjoy a seafood lunch at one of the nearby restaurants.

Just five minutes away by car is the town of Hvar, the island's busy and atmospheric central hub. Being a port town means that there's always plenty of activity and buzz down by the marina. It's also an ancient town with a long, rich history.

You can explore Hvar's past by doing some sightseeing of its main attractions. These include 13th-century walls, the main square with a Renaissance cathedral, and an imposing hilltop fortress.
