Overview

Villa Floral casts a majestic silhouette of dazzling, white-washed colonial architecture, surrounded by rustling palm trees and fragrant lawns, tucked in a tranquil corner of the north Corfu coast.

Executed with exquisitely elegant finishes and contemporary verve, this sophisticated home is a haven of style and tranquillity, marrying traditional features with cutting edge, uber modernist design.

Villa Floral offers a glamorous abode with every comfort, within unadulterated calm and tranquillity. Ten people can be accommodated across five bedrooms and four bathrooms, in a setting of bright vibrantly chic and white-washed interiors.

Villa Floral offers hotel-grade comfort, uncompromising quality and sleek designer flair; guests will be able to step down the pace within impeccably styled surroundings away from the bustle of the crowds.

The kitchen offers sleek charcoal and timber contemporary setting for relaxed and straightforward meal preparation within airy surroundings, sedate and serene open plan living ideal for reclining in the evenings, or enjoying a sumptuous meal on the veranda as the sun softens across the lawns.

The bedrooms offer crisp serenity, charming simplicity and breathtaking views. Executed impeccably, the beds are finished with fresh, quality cotton linen and thick fluffy towels, while natural daylight pours in at every angle.

This bright home offers all the necessary conveniences for a comfortable family stay, including safe, security system, wifi and top rate facilities throughout - when it comes to a little indulgence, the Jacuzzi bath may hit the right note!

Villa Floral offers all the seclusion of a private home, nestled within green and fragrant gardens away from the crowds and tourist hot-spots, whilst having all the convenience of hotel amenities including private chef, babysitting, wellness and beauty services as well as excursions - for the best of both worlds; a five star hotel experience within secluded tranquillity!

Location & Local Information

Villa Floral is just a short distance from the beautiful sandy beach of Arillas. Arillas is a laid-back, quiet village. The beach stretches over almost two kilometres and is one of the most prestigious areas in the region for water sports.

After a day at the beach, visitors can refuel at one of the vibrant beach bars, or head to a waterfront taverna for a taste of traditional Greek cuisine. This spot is ideal for sailing and boat trips, and there is a nearby waterpark.

Corfu Town is the capital of the island, known for its elegant architecture. The charming town has narrow streets as well as a Venetian hilltop fortress with sea views. The Esplanade is the town's stunning central piazza, surrounded by museums, historic buildings, cafes and restaurants.

Corfu is a magical destination which draws visitors back year after year, offering a multi-cultural heritage, array of historical monuments and a stunning natural landscape. The largest of the Ionian islands, Corfu is known for its olive groves, Venetian architecture and pretty beachside villages.
