

Villa Belinha

Region: Carvoeiro Sleeps: 10

Overview

Located between Carvoeiro and Portimão, Villa Belinha is a modern, 5-bedroom house in Ferragudo. Just 150m from the beach, and within easy walking distance of the village centre, this villa is both comfortable and contemporary, with a spacious terrace and a beautiful private pool.

Head up to the rooftop terrace at Villa Belinha and you will really be able to appreciate its magnificent location. The Atlantic Ocean is enticingly close, and you have a great view of it from the villa. Other outdoor areas offer you seating and dining areas, a barbecue, bar and fireplace, plus you have plenty of loungers to settle on beside the palm-fringed pool.

The house itself boasts air conditioned bedrooms and has underfloor heating in most areas. There's a relaxing lounge with warming stove and flatscreen TV and a very modern kitchen equipped with American-style fridge freezer, dishwasher, washing machine and an island. Largely decorated in white, the villa has a clean, contemporary style, and lots of natural light flood into the interior.

Five bedrooms all feature a king or queen-size bed, and each one has its own en suite bathroom with a walk-in shower. There is also direct access to the terrace from every bedroom. For added flexibility, all of the beds are separable too.

With TV, DVD, a Sonos sound system and Wi-Fi, the villa is well equipped for tech. It's child-friendly too, with a cot and high-chair available for the very youngest guests.

Ferragudo is a small but pretty village, enjoying beautiful views across the River Arade towards its much larger neighbour, Portimão. There is a selection of cafés and restaurants in the main square and on the harbour, and Ferragudo is a fine starting point for a clifftop walk towards nearby Carvoeiro. There are several charming beaches to discover along the way, and they are certainly worth stopping for. You will also be well positioned for the many golf courses for which this delightful region is known.

Location & Local Information

With some of the most stunning beaches on the Algarve in the vicinity, Carvoeiro is a town well worth discovering. It has developed a compelling offer to visitors, with a good range of restaurants, bars and amenities amongst the traditional whitewashed buildings of its centre, and beautiful sightseeing opportunities in all directions.

Rugged cliff and secluded coves give the beaches of Carvoeiro plenty of character, with notable rock formations that have become attractions themselves. You can take a boat trip to see the caves of Praia de Benagil, where a circular 'eye' opening gives sight of a small beach hidden inside. Praia da Marinha, a short distance east, is considered to be one of the world's most beautiful beaches, with incredibly transparent waters, and Praia da Carvoeiro, closest to the town itself, is a very pleasing spot too.

Along the clifftop, you can admire Carvoeiro's enviable surroundings from the boardwalk – many of the caves along the coast are visible from this vantage point. Another notable sight is the beautiful Alfanzina Lighthouse, and you may also come across the A Boneca restaurant. While there are many places to eat in Carvoeiro, not all can boast the incredible location of this one, amongst the rocks and caves, giving it an unrivalled ocean view.

South of mountainous Monchique, at around 50 minutes' drive from Faro Airport, Carvoeiro enjoys a great location west of that city. Well clear of the hedonism of the Albufeira strip, the resort has beautiful Portimão just 10km away, with its stunning marina and excellent shopping facilities, and golf courses and theme parks close by. You may also be tempted to take to the water in Carvoeiro, with windsurfing, kayaking and sailing all possibilities. Lively bars and nightlife are plentiful, but if you would rather chill out, the cool vibes of Manoel's Jazz Club could well entice you.
