Location & Local Information

Villa Idelisa is situated in the charming, picturesque village of Prazeres in the relatively rural southwest region of Madeira. This idyllic corner of the Island benefits from its own microclimate ensuring balmy year-round temperatures and a lush dynamic landscape. Perched high up on a majestic mountainside, this quaint village offers visitors a lovely little animal farm, herb garden, cider mill and tea rooms making for a great little day out, as well as a sprinkling of welcoming traditional restaurants. Enjoy a colourful market day on Sundays gathering locally grown fruit and vegetables and delicious fish straight off the fishing boats nearby.

A steep path offering breath-taking views, or a short drive, takes you down to the ancient fishing village of Paúl do Mar. Relatively inaccessible until recent years, this coastal paradise hugged by commanding cliffs is the perfect spot to amble round, taking in its tranquil charms. Considered the hottest part of Madeira, the pretty beach is an ideal place to soak up those rays, and for those surf-seekers amongst you, the best waves on the Island can be found here, so grab your board and have a go!

For a little more action, just a ten-minute drive down the road you can find the livelier village of Calheta. This pretty area is popular due to its lovely sandy beach and crystal-clear water, where many activities are on offer, including snorkelling, canoeing, windsurfing, whale watching and even paragliding. And with beautiful historic churches, a variety of shops, bars and charming local restaurants, even a modern marina, there is plenty here to keep the whole family happy. Don't miss a free tour of the sugar cane museum and working factory, where you can enjoy a slice of delicious traditional honey cake and glass of Poncha on your way round.

There are a wide range of activities on offer throughout the Island, but one that really shouldn't be missed is the 2,092 kilometres of hiking trails along narrow stone irrigation channels known as levadas, which cut across Madeira's lush mountainous countryside into the Laurisilva forest. Prazeres is the perfect starting point to explore three beautiful trails, taking you to hidden waterfalls and stunning panoramic viewpoints.

If it's a more dynamic activity you're after, 4x4 tours across the Island are a must, taking you across the mind-blowing landscape that the volcanic origin of the island has created. For a gentler activity, perhaps try a wine tasting tour on the south coast of the Island, or a day trip to the historic Capital of Funchal with its charming old town. There really is something for everyone on this beautiful Island of Madeira.
