

Casa Arco Iris

Region: Ibiza Sleeps: 12

Overview

Casa Arco Iris is an impressive regal style home nestled amongst lush green hills and majestic exotic palm trees. The home has a grand feel that only a classic countryside house can provide and is complete with plenty of outdoor spaces to explore.

This magical getaway home sits between the villages of San Carlos and Santa Eulalia. The enchanting gardens possess several private seating areas to unwind in. From small al fresco dining areas situated on the immaculate green lawn to a beautiful bench with pink and red flowers decorated above it and a meditative Balinese massage temple, you will most certainly be spending more time outdoors than you do inside.

The inviting and sparkling pool benefits from easy access Roman steps and bright blue sun loungers offering relaxation. A poolside cabana and a lovely stone pathway are some of the garden's best features, adding to the home's unique charm. Additionally, an alluring courtyard boasts a gorgeous fountain flowing into a pond.

Casa Arco Iris is a home full of vibrant colour both inside and out and the interior benefits from an exotic and quirky design oozing hippie chic. The indoor dining area combines vivid colours with natural light and a cosy fireplace, creating a homely yet stylish space. The living area is decorated in rich golds, ocean blues and hot pinks.

The bedrooms are enhanced by lively patterns and prints yet remain rustic and cosy and underfloor heating in all rooms (including bathrooms) provides optimal comfort.

Three donkeys live in the vast forest located within the grounds as does the housekeeper and her three dogs, who has effectively tended to the home for ten years. With such a distinctive style and large grounds to roam and relax on, Casa Arco Iris will ensure that your Ibizan holiday is like no other.

Location & Local Information

Restaurante la Paloma is one of the nearest restaurants to Casa Arco Iris and is tucked away in the charming village of Sant Llorenç de Balafia. The venue has its dinner tables set up in enchanting and captivating gardens where nature is beautifully flourishing with flowers and citrus trees.

This is one of the most authentic Ibizan spots on the island, with a delectable homemade menu sourced from ingredients grown in the exotic gardens. La Paloma is amazing for couples and families alike. Couples can spark romance in the idyllic candlelit setting and families can unwind while kids play in the small park.

The rustic yet tastefully designed venue is the perfect place to try genuine Mediterranean cuisine. However, due to this La Paloma gets busy fast, so make sure you book a table in advance to avoid disappointment.

Cala Pada is an attractive beach situated on Ibiza's glistening South Coast. The beach is surrounded by a pine forest, bringing in a lovely natural fragrance and is around a 20-minute drive from Casa Arco Iris. The twinkling waters here will invite you in and a long wooden walkway extends from the shore right into the sea – a path to relaxation and tranquillity. The beach is also a favourite spot for windsurfers.

Cala Pada is popular with guests staying at Cala Pada resort and acts as a desirable refuge from the lunchtime bustle of Santa Eulalia.
