

Villa Jondal

Region: Es Cubells Sleeps: 12

Overview

Villa Jondal is a gorgeous and opulent home to retreat to where you can blissfully hide away from the rest of the world. It lies on the south of the island, nearby the small and charming village of Es Cubells.

From the villa's front, guests will be greeted by a swanky and sleek white exterior possessing quaint little windows offering views of the outside and two little palm trees at either side of the front door.

Villa Jondal is a fashionable and ultra-modern home with floor-length glass windows beautifully lighting up the interior at night and day while overlooking the pool and wider surrounding nature. The pool itself magnificently lights up as the sun sets, adding to the luxury of the home.

Sun loungers and beds placed poolside make enjoying the pool effortless as well as soaking in the Mediterranean sun rays. The gardens are also home to a well-kept green lawn, exotic plants and an elegant yet cosy outdoor sheltered dining area. You'll have everything you need to enjoy days in the sunshine.

Inside, the contemporary styling continues and classic minimalism is enhanced by artistic statement pieces placed throughout the home. For those lucky enough to stay in the master suite, make sure you enjoy every moment of the whirlpool bathtub that looks out to views over the sea.

One of the most spectacular features of this home is the tranquil indoor swimming pool. In one of the bedrooms containing twin double beds, steps lead up to a peaceful and serene indoor pool. This is a room worth tossing a coin over – good luck.
