

Casa Santa Maura

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 8

Overview

Head to your own private oasis at Casa Santa Maura, a modern villa getaway that is bright, spacious and welcoming. You're welcomed by a contemporary brick home, which perfectly combines the architecture of the typical stone houses with the fresh style of today's homes. There are large floor to ceiling windows and doors that look out onto a sparkling private pool.

Your new home away from home sleeps eight guests in its four double bedrooms, all of which have air-conditioning and big windows welcoming beautiful natural light. There are four bathrooms and they all offer new, up-to-date finishings.

Take some time to relax in the large living room, whether you're all watching a film together or taking time out to read and relax. Meals can be prepared in the well-equipped kitchen, which has a large window that overlooks the pool. In this modern kitchen you will also find everything you need to create a tantalising feast. Meals can be enjoyed at the dining table that overlooks the garden, or outdoors al fresco.

The large outdoor area is stunning, with a well-kept garden that boasts lush Mediterranean bushes and a large crystal clear private pool. The hardest decision you will face on your holiday is whether to take the short stroll to the beach or relax by your own pool. If you head down to the sea, you can wash off under the outside showers by the pool.

This villa is just 500m from the coves of Soglio and there are also more beautiful beaches near such as Marina of Novaglie (3.1km) and Marina Serra of Tricase (3.6km). The picturesque town of Corsano is just 4km away from the villa, and here you will find shops, a supermarket, a pharmacy and tasty restaurants and bars. Santa Maria di Leuca is 15km away from the villa, this town also known as Leuca is a town full of history, coastlines and beautiful beaches.
