Overview

Villa Corona is a beautiful villa near the sandy beach of Talamanca. It's a picture of serenity and tranquillity, with a lot of focus on relaxation obvious from just the exterior of the property.

There is plenty of greenery around the property, showing that it's been well looked after and well-kept by the owners. Additionally, in the rear is a private swimming pool surrounded by sun loungers giving your guests the perfect place to bathe in the Mediterranean sun and top up their tan!

When you enter the property, you are immediately invited to make yourself at home in this cosy villa. There is a large living area, with large sofas and plenty of light thanks to the large glass patio doors that open out to offer access to an outdoor seating area. There is a fully equipped kitchen, with its own unique décor and style! The modern appliances in addition to the workspace available make this kitchen an extremely efficient design.

Also, on the ground floor are three of the bedrooms, a mixture of double rooms and twin rooms, with their own unique elements. All of the bedrooms will offer you a comfortable night's sleep. Most of the bedrooms have air conditioning, and they all have en-suites, some with showers.

The rooms are cosy and bright. They make use of colours as well as lights to brighten up the spaces. The bedrooms on the upper floor are similar in design, except they benefit from having balconies leading from their rooms.

In addition to the main villa, it has a bungalow attachment with its own independent layout. It can be accessed through its own entrance or through the main villa, but it is its own independent holiday villa. It has a fully equipped kitchen with modern appliances, in addition to its own living area and a double bedroom with ensuite.

As you exit at the rear there is a covered terrace with outdoor dining furniture and seating areas. Perfect for you if you enjoy a BBQ since the villa also has a barbeque for your use. In addition, there is a large private swimming pool, surrounded by sun loungers as well as some seating areas and shade.
