

Villa Jengibre

Region: Santa Eulalia Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Jengibre is a traditional style house in Ibiza near Santa Eulalia. It's surrounded by trees, creating a gorgeous landscape of greenery as your main view from the property.

The property is a gorgeous typical home with home comforts that you'd expect, and therefore it's a cosy holiday villa, perfect for families! At the front of the property is your pool area complete with sun loungers. It'll be a great place to both tops up on your tan as well as take a dip.

As you come up to the entrance of the property, you're instantly greeted with an outdoor lounge set up complete with sofas and a dining area. This is a unique layout, but it offers you a way of being comfortable whilst still being outside and enjoying the sun and air.

The layout is undercover, so it will be shaded. This interesting design choice is a spectacular part of the villa adding to its uniqueness and its charm. From here you have a beautiful view of the sea as well as your surroundings.

When you enter the property, you're greeted with a further living area, with an open plan kitchen. The house shows its traditional origins with the décor decisions in this area of the home, complete with an exposed wooden beam ceiling and tiled floors. Again, these design decisions are there to enhance the classic aspect of this villa, emphasising the fact that it is a traditional home.

There are three bedrooms at the villa, two with en-suites and one without. The bedrooms are a mix of double beds and twin setups, but all of them are similar in design using warm colours throughout. The master bedroom has direct access to the front terrace, and it's en-suite is a gorgeous half tiled room with a shower.

The other two rooms, though not as big are still the same style using warm colours to invite you in to stay. The room with twin beds is perfect for kids! This room with twin beds is without an en-suite and instead, it makes use of the bathroom in the hallway that has a shower.

The final bedroom has an en-suite with a bath, and just as the master and the twin room, it is set up with warm colours with its aim being as warm and inviting as it can.
