

Villa Trompeta

Region: San Jose Sleeps: 12

Overview

Villa Trompeta is a magnificent home nestled within the Ibiza hills. The home looks as if it is luxury crafted within the forest. The charming stone building is situated in what's known to be one of the most unspoiled areas on the island and is spread over a plot of more than three hectares.

The home's exterior is simply amazing. Imposing palm trees and exotic plants provide the garden with natural decoration and beautiful flowers grow up the walls. A lush green lawn is perfect for walking barefoot on and the glistening private pool looks out onto the horizon.

At Villa Trompeta, endless hills go on far into the distance which you will be able to admire from various spots in the garden. Guests will be able to unwind on the pool deck's sun loungers, a unique wooden lounge or one of two daybeds shaded by an umbrella.

An outdoor kitchen and dining area is wonderful for al fresco meals eaten under the twinkling night sky. The terrace possesses a comfy L-shaped sofa and a coffee table with curtains providing shade from the sun as well as a casual dining table for up to ten people.

The home's interior exudes space and light without forgetting those important creature comforts such as sink-in sofas, book-filled bookshelves and lamps for evenings in.

If you feel like cooking up a storm in the kitchen, it'll be easy as space comes equipped with an ice machine, a pasta machine, a blender and a coffee maker.

Location & Local Information

Yemanja is a delicious traditional Spanish restaurant only 2km away, located on the shores of Cala Jondal. The food is renowned for being absolutely irresistible and a wonderful representation of the island's cuisine – think fresh seafood and paella. The menu also boasts oysters, tasty beef and lamb dishes and sangria with cava.

The venue has been open for more than thirty years, so the owners know a thing or two about preparing delectable Mediterranean food. Popular with families, the restaurant is perfect for lunch and dinner on the beach, with atmospheric music in the background. Make sure to book a table at the front of the restaurant so that you can admire the picturesque sea views.

If you're looking for something a little bit more lively, head to KM5 – it's only three minutes away! Here, chic white décor set against moody pink and blue lights provides an elegant dining space as well as a buzzing party venue. KM5 also has a large outdoor dining area.

At this venue, you never know what you are actually in for. From magicians, massages and shisha smoking to exotic cocktails and parties powered by DJs, KM5 is full of surprises. The seating areas comprise of impressive Haimas and chandeliers and the venue also holds an exclusive boutique and art space. Prepare for an entirely unique entertaining experience!
