

Villa Trompeta

Region: San Jose Sleeps: 12 - 14

Overview

Nestled among the enchanting Ibiza hills, Villa Trompeta is a magnificent retreat that blends luxury with the surrounding forest. This charming stone building is located in one of the island's most unspoiled areas, occupying an expansive plot of over three hectares. Indulge in the beauty of Villa Trompeta, where luxury and nature harmonize, creating an idyllic haven where you can immerse yourself in serenity and create lasting memories.

The exterior of Villa Trompeta is a sight to behold. Majestic palm trees and exotic plants adorn the garden, creating a natural tapestry, while vibrant flowers gracefully climb the walls. A lush green lawn invites you to walk barefoot, and the glistening private pool offers a captivating view of the horizon. From various vantage points in the garden, you can admire the seemingly endless hills stretching into the distance. Unwind on the sun loungers by the pool deck, indulge in the unique wooden lounger, or recline on one of the two daybeds shaded by an umbrella, immersing yourself in pure relaxation.

For memorable al fresco dining experiences, the outdoor kitchen and dining area are simply delightful, allowing you to savour meals under the twinkling night sky. The terrace features a comfortable L-shaped sofa and a coffee table, where you can unwind and enjoy the shade provided by flowing curtains. Additionally, a casual dining table, accommodating up to ten people, sets the stage for shared meals and lively conversations.

Inside Villa Trompeta, a sense of space and light envelops you, ensuring a tranquil and welcoming ambience. Sink-in sofas, book-filled bookshelves, and soft lamps create an inviting atmosphere for cosy evenings spent indoors. If culinary adventures beckon, the well-equipped kitchen is a chef's delight. Complete with an ice machine, pasta machine, blender, and coffee maker; it provides all the tools necessary to unleash your culinary creativity.

Location & Local Information

Yemanja is a delicious traditional Spanish restaurant only 2km away, located on the shores of Cala Jondal. The food is renowned for being absolutely irresistible and a wonderful representation of the island's cuisine – think fresh seafood and paella. The menu also boasts oysters, tasty beef and lamb dishes and sangria with cava.

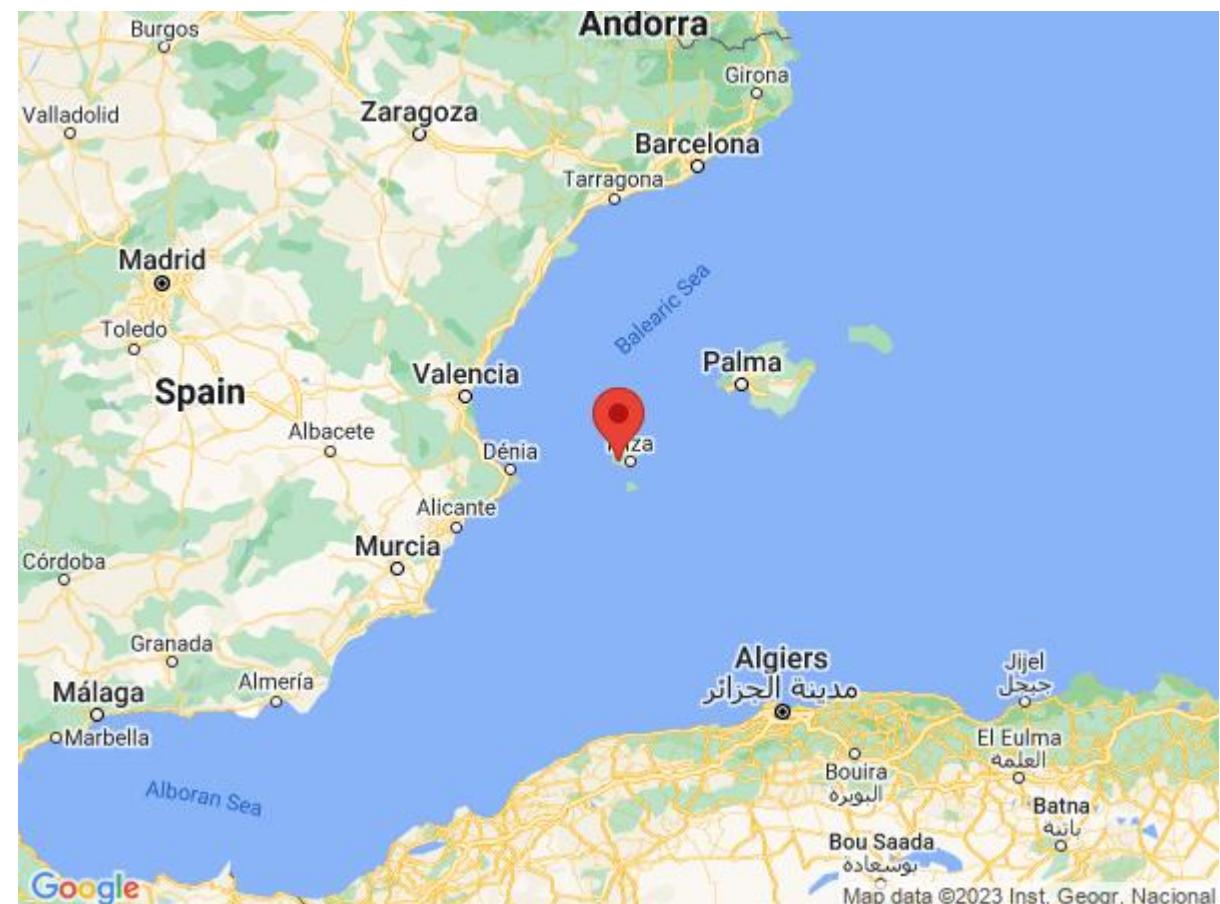

The venue has been open for more than thirty years, so the owners know a thing or two about preparing delectable Mediterranean food. Popular with families, the restaurant is perfect for lunch and dinner on the beach, with atmospheric music in the background. Make sure to book a table at the front of the restaurant so that you can admire the picturesque sea views.

If you're looking for something a little bit more lively, head to KM5 – it's only three minutes away! Here, chic white décor set against moody pink and blue lights provides an elegant dining space as well as a buzzing party venue. KM5 also has a large outdoor dining area.

At this venue, you never know what you are actually in for. From magicians, massages and shisha smoking to exotic cocktails and parties powered by DJs, KM5 is full of surprises. The seating areas comprise of impressive Haimas and chandeliers and the venue also holds an exclusive boutique and art space. Prepare for an entirely unique entertaining experience!
