

Villa Bugula

Region: San Jose Sleeps: 6

Overview

When approaching Villa Bugula, you will instantly admire its unique and modern design, set against the distinctive lush green countryside. The home lies in a natural paradise as it is situated amongst the hills of Cala Tarida and Cala Moli.

A sparkling private pool, barbecue and various comfy seating areas provide everything needed to relax and unwind outside while overlooking the gorgeous scenery. Sun loungers are perfectly placed poolside to feel the full effect of the daytime sun and look out for the twinkling stars at night.

Beside the pool, stairs lead up to the first-floor terrace which features a sheltered lounge area and an outdoor barbecue. This is where you can prepare and enjoy alfresco meals with friends.

Orange and yellow walls vividly decorate the home's exterior, adding to its bright yet stylish aesthetic. The open plan living and dining area features a cosy glass fireplace and home entertainment system as well as having access via large glass doors to the pool terrace. It'll be easy to dry off inside in between dips in the pool.

Up to six guests can comfortably sleep across the home's three sizeable bedrooms. Orange tiled floors are complemented by vibrant wall art and large beds in each of the rooms. The master bedroom features access to the terrace, an en suite bathroom, and a fireplace. This room will be a favourite amongst guests as it also benefits from having a safe, dressing room and a wonderful coastal view.

Location & Local Information

Guests who love the beach will be delighted by the fact that the beautiful bay of Cala Vadella is only a ten-minute drive away. The charming beach attracts holidaymakers and Ibiza's from all over the island and boasts a beautiful pine hill backdrop.

While at Cala Vadella, you'll be able to ride a pedalo, go kayaking or take lessons at the beaches' dive school. This beach is also home to a selection of fantastic bars and restaurants for you to retreat to after long hot days in the Mediterranean sunshine.

The inviting crystal clear waters are perfect to sink into while getting up close and personal to the plethora of exotic marine life. Cala Vadella is popular with luxury yachts who are strikingly dotted across the shore.

Beach lovers will feel as if they've come to the right place at Villa Bugula as another great beach, Cala Tarida lies just five minutes from the home. The white sandy beach is backed by beautiful homes and lush green hills.

Known as the longest and widest beach on the island, visitors to Tarida can enjoy a range of thrilling activities or simply soak up the sunshine. Inflatables and snorkel equipment are available to purchase from one of the beachfront shops as well as a lovely range of bars and restaurants.

Cotton Beach Club is a luxurious Mediterranean restaurant situated on Cala Tarida. Boasting a gorgeous white interior, the venue possesses a chic and opulent décor. Guests will enjoy devouring the sushi, a la carte and aperitivo style menu. The restaurant also contains extensive wine and cocktail lists.
