

Coral Blu at Royal Westmoreland

Region: Royal Westmoreland Sleeps: 6

Overview

Coral Blu is a vibrant home set within one of the most prestigious spots on the glittering west coast of Barbados. The Royal Westmoreland Golf Resort is an exclusive, star-studded gated enclave offering a world of fine dining, premium leisure facilities and world-class golfing. Staff services and pampering amid a backdrop of green undulating courses extend to the “platinum coast.”

Be prepared to enter a world of comfort and style at the Royal Westmoreland! Guests will leave behind the daily grind to indulge in a sumptuous environment of wellness, concierge arranged treats and delivered meals. This is the place to go, to ‘get away from it all.’

Pristine manicured grounds and round-the-clock security, as well as fitness centres, dining, spa, tennis and of course five star golfing nestle alongside one of the west coast’s finest beaches: Mullins Bay, where guests have access to the Beach Club.

Coral Blu is a delightful home with white-washed exterior and fresh, airy interiors offering a breezy, effortless backdrop for a holiday where every detail has been taken care of. The “upside down” layout makes for tranquil ground floor sleeping quarters, offering a leisurely stroll from bedroom to pool deck, and living quarters filled with light and glittering views of the Caribbean Sea.

Open plan living is executed with effortless panache at Coral Blu; the living space is chic and cosy with touches of classical colonial architecture, solid timber furnishing and natural interplay between indoor and outdoor living. Sauntering out to the upper terrace for a rum cocktail as the sun sets across the bay is about as good as it gets.

Graceful, yet informal, this home has an optimism to it, zingy lime green and turquoise accents offset the whites; there is dining for eight indoors, an impeccably equipped kitchen and stylish outdoor lounge and al fresco dining set alongside the pool.

The three bedrooms (each with a bathroom), provide restorative tranquillity within serenely executed spaces, cotton linens and a cooling retreat from the resort.

Coral Blu leaves no detail under-thought, within a relaxed yet luxurious setting, on one of the finest stretches of coast that Barbados has to offer.

Location & Local Information

The west coast of Barbados is a blend of exclusive and high end developments attracting a well-heeled, international jet-set, majestic beaches known informally as the “platinum” coast and intriguing local Bajan life blending with gracious, colonial architecture.

From the prestigious Westmoreland Golf Resort, guests can access an array of leisure activities, from fitness centre, to spa, to tennis, and of course world-class golfing. A shuttle bus takes guests to the nearby Mullins Beach where they also have access to the Clubhouse.

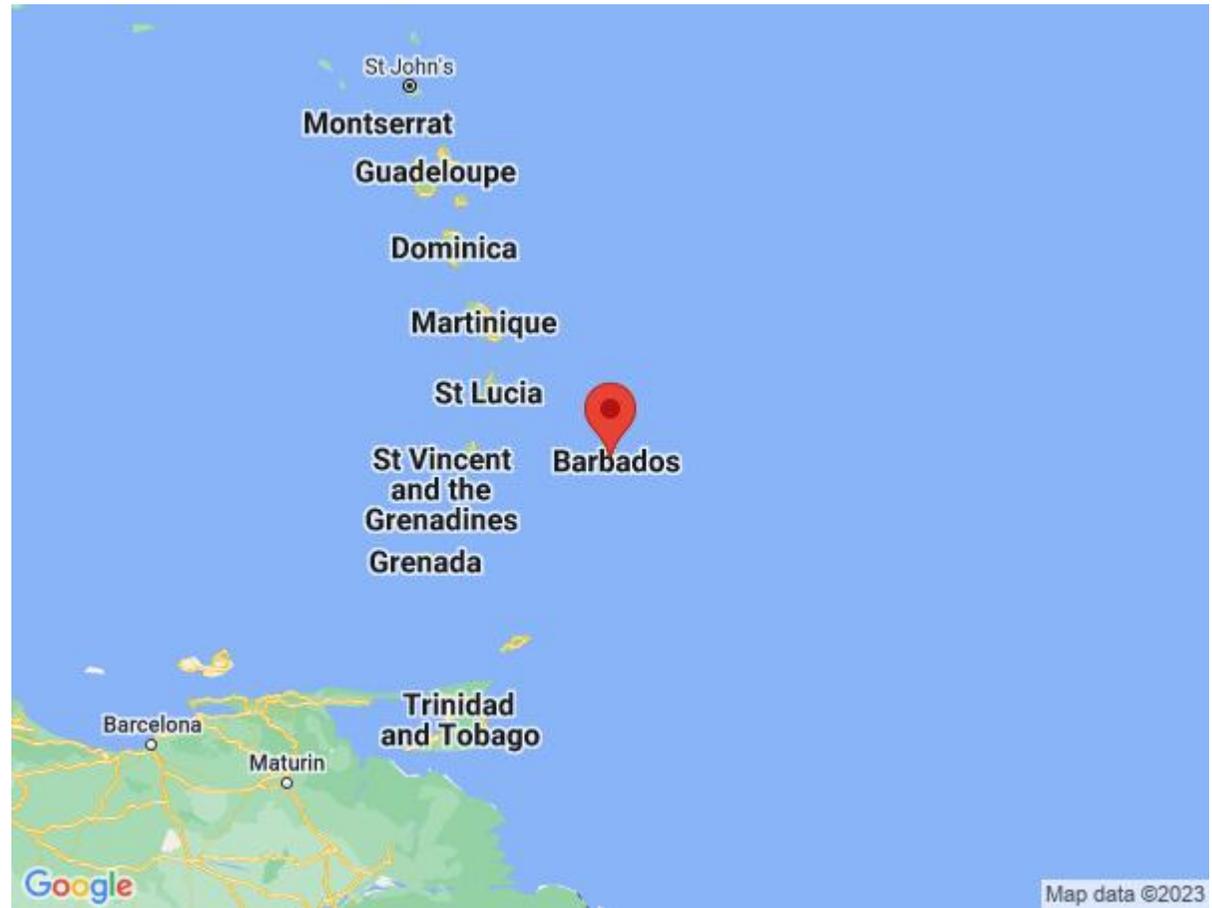

Water sports enthusiasts will be in their element, from sailing to snorkelling, jet-skiing to kite-surfing, Barbados has it all. One of the greatest delights of this island is boarding the sparkling waters for a catamaran cruise, along with a decadent buffet meal and drinks.

Holetown (only 5 km south) will offer a slice of local Bajan life. The Chattel village is a melting pot of artisans, offering local crafts, art and jewellery. The Chattel houses provide a striking contrast to the colonial residences with their dazzling white coral facades and open verandas; the former are vividly coloured with fancy gables and gingerbread fretwork. The Chattel houses date back to plantation days; the small wooden shacks were designed to be movable, yet this didn't limit their decorative charm; finished in candy pinks and pistachio greens with pretty shutters and sloping roofs.

Speightstown (5.7 km distance) is also known as “little Bristol” - this town offers evocative local life, fisherman casting their catch on the jetty, a distinctly nautical feel along with street vendors and eclectic dining options. The island's capital, Bridgetown (14 km distance) is known for its British colonial architecture and historical sites blending with colourful shopping, an abundance of sea based activities and UNESCO world heritage status.

What we love

- Sublime location within gated and secure enclave, with close access to tennis courts, golf, fitness, dining and the beach (shuttle service to and from Mullins Beach)
- Access to the exclusive Royal Westmoreland Beach Club at Mullins Bay (one of the west coast's finest beaches)
- All the amenities of a high-end resort with the privacy of an independent home for the best of both worlds
- Very safe - 24 hour security; guests can holiday with peace of mind

What you should know...

- Small daily resort fee to cover access to an array of premium services
- Set within an inland gated community - other than the resort, access to amenities is via a car
- Some extra services may incur an additional fee (such as delivered meals)
- Set within a community of other homes - e.g. not for those who wish for remote and unpopulated seclusion
- Unfenced pool and internal steps
