

Villa Taitus

Region: Split, Trogir & The South Sleeps: 8 - 10

Overview

A luxurious 4-bedroom holiday home, Villa Taitus is located in the village of Naklice, just 7km from the town of Omiš. Equipped with a sauna, gym and heated private pool, it offers a great mix of activity and relaxation, and accommodates up to 10 guests.

Surrounded by beautiful hills and just a short walk from the village restaurant, Villa Taitus has an enticing pool terrace with sun loungers, and a large garden with lawn, an open lounge seating area, and a covered dining area with a barbecue and kitchenette. Among its many other features are a playground for children, and a fitness room and billiards table.

On the lower-ground floor, you will find not just the sauna but a Croatian tavern where you can sample the local wines in traditional surroundings – and buy a bottle or two to take home. On the ground floor, with direct access to the pool area, you have a modern living and dining area complete with comfy sofas and satellite TV. It's all air-conditioned for your comfort too. The dining area is adjacent to a well-equipped, modern kitchen with high-quality appliances including a dishwasher and large fridge.

A double bedroom with en suite is also on the ground floor, and there are two more en suite doubles on the first floor (one with a bath tub and one with a shower), along with a twin bedroom and a family bathroom.

Just seven minutes' drive away, Omiš promises some great adventures, from zip-lining across the Cetina Canyon to rafting on the river. You could also make the climb to one of the Old Town fortresses and admire the beautiful views. Around 25km west, the city of Split shouldn't be missed when you're as close as you are – visit Diocletian's Palace, marvel at the architecture or head for the waterfront for some of the best dining and nightlife on the coast.

Location & Local Information

A small harbour town on the Dalmatian Coast, Omiš sits at the mouth of the Cetina River. It has a long and rich history, with stories of the town's notorious pirates running amok in the Middle Ages among those you are bound to discover. In the 13th and 14th century, they were the most-feared in the Adriatic, and used the river to make a quick getaway after attacking passing trade ships. In summer, Pirate Night tours are a popular attraction, telling tales of the pirates in a more family-friendly way.

Omiš is a pleasant place to spend your time with lovely beaches and a wealth of great restaurants and cafés. It's visually impressive, with steep cliffs providing a backdrop to the Old Town, where you can find a Franciscan monastery and several old churches, in addition to the Mirabella fortress, dating from the 13th century. At the top of the mountain, there is also the Starigrad fortress – it's quite a climb, but a rewarding one.

Olive groves and vineyards lend their magic to the beautiful areas which surround the town, and the Cetina gives you the opportunity to try out water-sports like rafting, canyoning and canoeing.

Omiš is something of a cultural hub too. The town hosts festivals celebrating music and theatre on a regular basis, with an annual highlight being the Festival of Dalmatian Klapas each summer. Split is also easily accessible from Omiš, around 25km away, so it's easy to take a bus or mini-van to see the Diocletian Palace, the Cathedral of St Domnius or the town's strangely unmissable frog museum.
