Location & Local Information

The fifth-largest island in Thailand, Ko Kut (also known as Koh Kood) is a tropical paradise for nature-lovers and those looking for a calm retreat alike: a secluded world of vast jungle-clad mountains interspersed with magnificent waterfalls!

Whether you're after a traditional beach retreat of sandcastles, paddling and sun-bathing or the allure of the wilderness, this rain-forested, mountainous island in the Gulf of Thailand, home to 300-year-old Macca Trees, has something for everyone!

A full coastline of cotton soft sandy beaches with lapping waters clear as crystal: this is truly heaven: as suited to tranquil relaxation as exploration, with world-class kayaking, snorkelling, paddle-boarding, diving and sailing on offer!

Our expert instructors would be delighted to provide Scuba or Open Water Diving courses in the House Reef, totally free of coral bleaching with 58% live coral cover and a wonderful, diverse array of coral species as well as turtles, stingrays, barracudas and sometimes even sea horses! Or for a more relaxed vibe, take our private boat along the coast and stop off at any bay you like for a dip, sunbathe or even a snorkel!

We highly recommend a snorkelling trip to the natural underwater beauties of Koh Rang Yai National Marine Park and Koh Rang Yai National Marine Park to explore the rich, unspoilt coral reefs and underwater animal sculptures that have been created here, as well as to see brightly coloured marine life including yellow fusiliers, diamond fish and chevron barracuda!

This is the best island in Thailand for lovers of beaches, jungles and waterfalls. With no vehicular access to the island, it remains beautifully unspoilt and calm, allowing you to escape the stresses of modern life. There are only a few small restaurants on the island, serving up some fantastic, freshly caught seafood and traditional Thai cuisine.

With so few inhabitants (the local population is estimated at under 2,500), and indeed more coconut palms than buildings, you might just feel as though you have the island to yourself!

We would be delighted to organise a flight for you with our private plane to Koh Mai Si, just a five-minute luxury speedboat transfer from the resort!
