Location & Local Information

Superb sunset views are guaranteed at Villa Sapna, which sits on a hillside as part of a private estate in Cape Yamu.

Surrounded by a rural landscape of coconut, banana and pineapple plantations and fishing villages, this villa offers the perfect base for exploring nearby tropical islands and Phuket's lush interior.

A five-minute walk down the hill leads to a small beach and pier used mostly by local fishermen setting off for the day in their longtail boats. Beyond the villa, Phuket's best dining, spas, golf courses and west-coast beaches are all found within a 30-minute drive. A jog or stroll around here in the evening is especially scenic when calm Sapam Bay turns crimson at sunset.

Though the surrounding area is largely rural and rustic, the fantastic Breeze restaurant nearby offers a fine dining experience and a very popular Sunday brunch.
