Location & Local Information

Natai is a beautiful beach of soft golden sands that sweep up the Andaman coast for 10 kilometres. The beach lies within Phang Nga province, just across the bridge from Phuket Island.

Strict building laws have limited development in the area, and only a handful of luxury villas and small upscale resorts are sprinkled along the beachfront. Inland, a quiet rural landscape remains intact with lush coconut groves and green fields where water buffalo roam.

The nearest town of Kokkloy has a few banks and shops, but for shopping and nightlife, it's best to take a drive to Phuket. Beyond the villa, find some excellent upscale dining spots at nearby beachfront resorts, while some of Thailand's most enchanting sights are easily reached, including Phang Nga Bay and the Similan islands.
