The Bukit Peninsula's beautiful beaches and many of Bali's world-famous surf breaks are within a 20-minute drive of the villa, including Padang-Padang and Bingin. And a sunset visit to the magical cliff-top temple at Uluwatu shouldn't be missed!

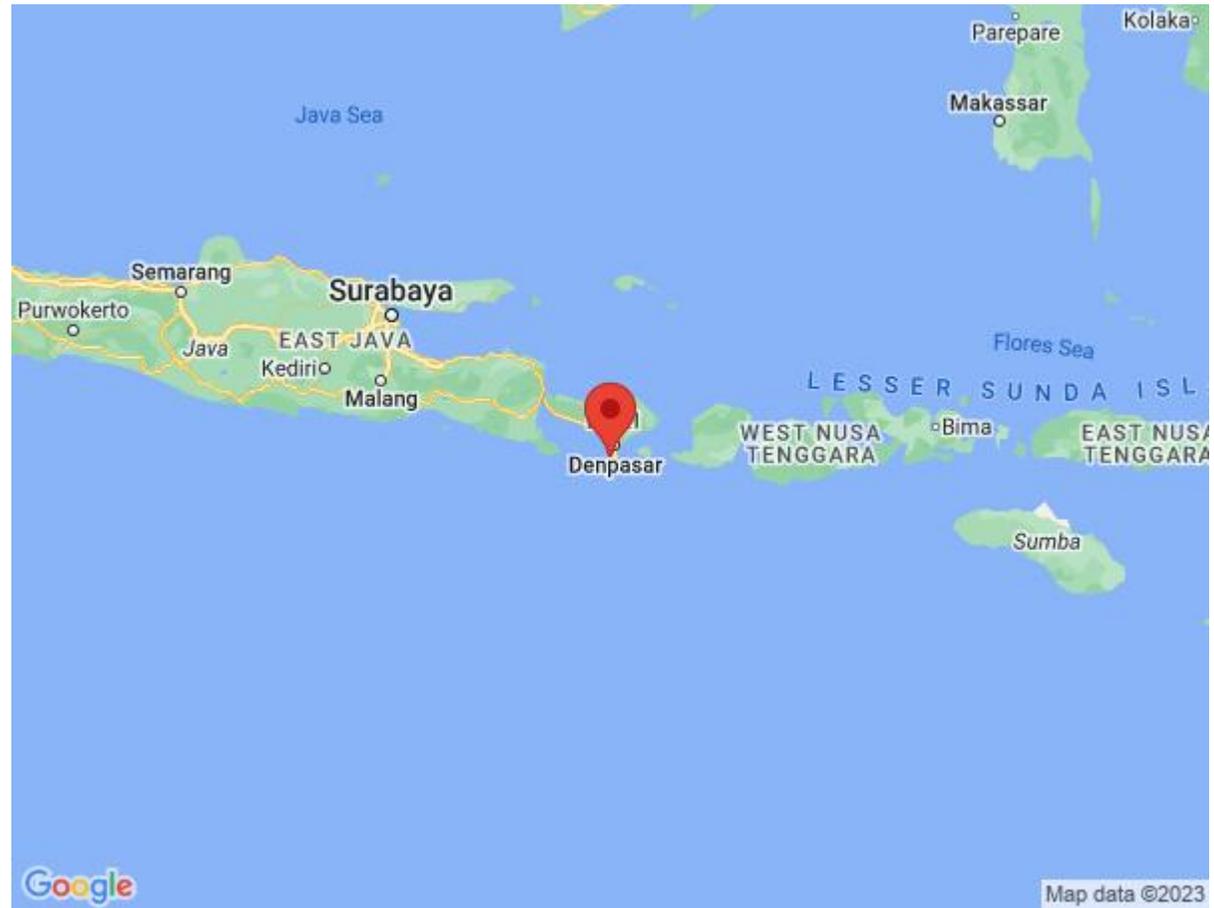

A fishing village, Jimbaran prides itself on its lush and beautiful natural environment and as a result, the area is regularly frequented by local Indonesians and visitors from around the world!

As a collection of islands, Indonesia has a strong culture and history of marine activity, so you and fellow guests will have no trouble finding something to do on the waters of the Indian Ocean! Padang-Padang beach is world famous so have a great day on the white sugary sand beach as you and fellow guests admire surfers. If you are more intrepid, visit the Surf Camp, to learn the basic moves and flashy skills that will make you look like a Rockstar on the waves! Use the local taxi boats to explore the unbroken coral reef and the exotic and rare species around you! After a lovely day dine at the local eateries nearby with a selection of freshly caught seafood!

Sunsets remind you of the enchantment this fairy-tale like island offers and the best way to appreciate them is at the Uluwatu Temple. Perched on a cliff 70 metres above the ground, the temple provides social media worthy snaps as well as being home to many monkeys! Both adults and children alike will giggle at the cheeky monkeys as they swing around mischievously!

To capture the true heavenliness of the southern coastline of Bali, head to the beach on the southern coast of Bukit. Fly solo, tandem or take a course in paragliding as you fly into the sky to admire the paradise that is Bali!
