This part of the lovely island has yet to be fully discovered by tourists, so you will find the ambience to be tranquil and calm, whilst also conveniently providing access to the area's array of activities!

The people in Bukit are very used to visitors and thus they are very hospitable, friendly and when necessary, provide an incredible first class rate of service, whether you are dining, relaxing, visiting a place or taking part in something!

Pandawa beach is the nearest beach to the villa, so grab your beach gear and head down there! Previously, the villa was hidden and only visited by locals and men who operate boats. Heading further along you will find Timbis beach. Here the more intrepid and brave guests can soar in the sky and get a 360-degree view of the beautiful peninsula, as you paraglide! Leave those who opt out to relax and frolic on the beach as they watch you take a solo, tandem or teacher guided flight and swoop through the air!

Bali is also known for the quality of its spas and so a trip to one should not go amiss! The distinguished Spa Alila Uluwatu, will live up to your expectations and offers both original and modern interpretations of ancient Asian healing techniques and Indonesian relaxing traditions! After a session in the spa, to continue the state of tranquillity, head over to Bali Golf and Country Club Nusa Dua, where the play takes place past creeks, canyons and waterfalls, through a mature coconut grove to the beach and back to the clubhouse alongside a lake!

From surfing, many spots for picturesque tours and cultural exploration, as well as a plethora of restaurants, bars and roadside stalls and shacks selling food on the go, holidaymakers can rest assured they will be both well fed and served throughout their excursions in the beautiful southern coast!
