

Villa Anfora

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 5

Overview

Part of a beautiful country resort close to the iconic 'white' city of Ostuni is Villa Anfora, a spacious and family-friendly holiday home. Surrounded by olive trees and lush countryside, this villa offers idyllic views within a relaxed and tranquil setting. The interior features traditional flooring and vaulted stone ceilings for a charming, authentic feel throughout.

There's a private garden to soak up the peaceful atmosphere as you lie back on a pool-side lounge and listen to the sounds of nature. Also enjoy long walks within the grounds to discover the area's natural beauty. There's even the chance to meet the resident donkey and horse!

The main living area is found in a bright and air-conditioned veranda with direct garden access via patio doors. A comfortable sofa and armchairs are positioned around the television for unwinding after enjoying a meal at the adjacent dining table for four. The fully-equipped kitchen comes with every appliance and convenience you could need. A laundry room with washing machine is external to the villa. There are two double bedrooms and one single bedroom at Villa Anfora, with one having its own ensuite bathroom. There's also a well-appointed family bathroom for the use of all guests.

Within the lawned garden is a private swimming pool surrounded by sun loungers and a variety of typical Mediterranean plants. The views from the pool across the countryside are incredibly picturesque. Rest in the shade of a leafy tree before enjoying an al fresco meal on the dining patio with built-in barbecue, stone oven and table for six.

The city of Ostuni is less than a 15-minute drive from the villa, with the coastline and its stunning beaches a further 10 minutes away. Take in the lush, olive grove-dotted landscapes of Parco Dune Costiere by car, bike or on foot - all the way to the beach. Here you can relax on immaculate sands and swim in the azure waters of the Adriatic Sea.

Also within easy reach is the wider Valle d'Itria area, which is characterised by traditional trulli, ancient towns and rolling hills. Perfect for an unforgettable day trip is the city of Lecce, with its wealth of baroque architecture and culture.

Location & Local Information

Natural beauty is on the doorstep at Villa Anfora, with idyllic countryside stretching for miles all around you. Enjoy long walks and bike rides to discover the ancient olive groves and sleepy villages that are some of the most scenic features of the landscape.

Ostuni, otherwise known as 'The White City', is less than 15 minutes away from the villa by car. As well as the whitewashed buildings that populate the old town area, there are plenty of other historic attractions to tick off your sightseeing list. These include the 15th-century cathedral and city walls. If you visit the city on a Saturday, you'll get to browse the fresh fruit and vegetable market. And towards the end of August is when the famous Cavalcata di Sant'Oronzo festival is held.

The pretty towns of the famous Valle d'Itria are within easy reach and include Cisterino Martina Franca, Locorotondo and Alberobello. Many have a charming, fairytale-like feel, with trulli-lined streets being a particular feature of Alberobello.

Head to the Ostuni coast to enjoy a day out by the sea. There's a number of beautiful beaches on offer, so you're totally spoilt for choice. One of the best is Quarto di Monte, with the parkland of Parco Dune Costiere just a few kilometres West. Visiting this beach means relaxing on the sand in the morning, then spending the afternoon exploring the wildlife and natural habitats of the park. There are inland olive groves, sand dunes and wetlands to discover, with many trails to hike and cycle along. You can also take guided tours to learn more about the stunning area.

Another place of interest for a trip is the city of Lecce. It's just over an hour's drive away and is full of baroque buildings and cultural charm, as well as much more ancient landmarks. As a result of its rich history and art, it's often referred as 'Florence of the South'.
