Location & Local Information

Wine lovers must get down to Winery Kovac in Kastel Sucurac and discover a new way to experience Zinfandel. The winery offers hotel and villa pickup and transfers visitors to their lovely vineyard and wine cellar overlooking the city of Split and the Adriatic Sea.

The welcoming hosts are bursting with wine knowledge and have dedicated the winery to the Zinfandel variety, producing both red and rose versions. This is a fantastic way to see and taste the country's beautiful local culture. The wines can be sampled with local cheeses and fresh prosciutto outside, amongst the lovely vineyard or inside, in the cosy wine cellar. Make sure you save some space in your suitcase to bring a couple of bottles home.

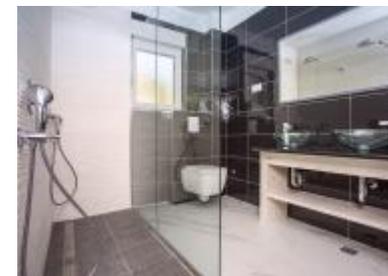

Dining away from the villa is a wonderful way to enjoy your time while in Croatia. Spend the evening at Matela Wine & Dine in Kastel Sucurac that excellently combines a creative Croatian menu with a wonderful selection of local wine to create an experience that your taste buds won't forget.

Set in a rustic stone-walled building complete with a wood-burning fireplace and quaint wooden tables and chairs, Matela makes for a very romantic evening.

The venue also serves Mediterranean and European cuisines as well as fresh seafood dishes. Try the black risotto, mussels and pancetta.
