It is less developed and crowded than Phuket, more laid back than Koh Samui, and just an 80-minute flight from Bangkok!

The west coast of Krabi offers magnificent views across the stunning archipelago of 13 islands, impressive mountains, clear and calm waters and almost always blue skies. At both Railay Beach and the Emerald Pool (Sa Morakot) you can enjoy some of the finest waters and beaches of Thailand!

Offering endless miles of fine white sands, glistening palm trees and shimmering blue seas, this is undoubtedly one of the world's finest beach destinations, with more than a hundred offshore islands! So whether you're after a traditional beach retreat of sandcastles, paddling and sun-bathing on the many nearby tropical islands or a hike up the countless towering mountains, Krabi has something for everyone!

Beautiful hikes and activities can be enjoyed throughout the lush tropical jungle, freshwater lagoons and dense mangroves of the region. The ultimate attraction is undoubtedly Phanom Bencha National Park, including the Huay Toh Waterfall with eleven levels including many large pools where you can swim!

The thrill-seekers and adventurers among the group will also be more than satisfied with the fantastic entertainment options on the island which include Elephant Trekking, white water rafting, rock-climbing on the famous limestone karsts, scuba diving and snorkelling among the tropical fish and kayaking through emerald pools. Rock-climbing is best enjoyed on one of the iconic Khao Khanab Nam Mountains and the incredible craggy peninsula of Rai Leh that is Thailand's climbing Mecca!

And for those simply looking to be pampered, soak up the sunshine and indulge in a little 'me time' there are plenty of spas, massage parlours and golden beaches to get in a little self-care and relaxation!
