Overview

Casa Morera is a beautiful villa in Torremuelle, Benalmadena. It's the perfect villa for a family to enjoy a vacation, with a private swimming pool and private gardens for your use. If you're after a peaceful get-away, you'll find it here with a mix of a quiet villa location and quiet beaches in Torremuelle, but if you want a night life or experiences, then you'll find that here in Benalmadena also!

When you enter the villa, you'll find a beautiful large living and dining area. It's a welcoming and cosy room, where you'll find it is the perfect location to chill-out and enjoy the company of your guests or even wind-down after a long day of exploring and experiencing what is available in Benalmadena. There is some great character in this room, from the fireplace to the wooden beamed ceilings. Additionally, you'll find that this room welcomes a lot of light thanks to the large windows. The dining area has a formal dining table that will seat you all, but it is not the only dining location at the villa. Under covered terraces you'll find another dining table, so you are able to dine outdoors in the shade.

There is a fully equipped kitchen available, with white fittings and wooden accents, as well as all the necessary appliances. The kitchen and the dining area both have access out into the garden. The villa also has a BBQ available for your use so that you can enjoy some ultimate summer food, poolside! The villa has a lovely private swimming pool, which can be heated with advance notice and at extra cost, with sun beds around it as well as a lawn area which is great for kids and adults alike.

The villa has three bedrooms, two doubles and a twin room. All of these rooms are bright and spacious, they use their space to create a relaxing environment for you and your guests. There are also two bathrooms at the property which are lovely, elegant and simple in their design. Overall, this villa is a great holiday location for a family, or a smaller group. It's close enough to the local amenities that you can explore and experience what Benalmadena has to offer, whilst being a relaxing and calm place for you to stay!
