

Villa Membrillo

Region: Marbella Sleeps: 6

Overview

A contemporary 3-bedroom villa located in Benalmádena Costa, Villa Membrillo has many of the Costa del Sol's best-loved family attractions within easy reach. Just 500m from the beach, this impressive property sits in its own pretty gardens and offers a private pool as well as stunning sea views.

Ideal for up to four adults and two children, this villa is close to local amenities, including restaurants, cafés and shops, all of which are less than 1km away. The private gardens and a 10m x 5m swimming pool, available all year-round, offer some enticing outdoor areas for relaxing. There is also an outdoor dining area which enjoys a wonderful view of the sea, perfect anytime from breakfast to supper.

Inside, the house is particularly modern in style, and tastefully decorated, with shades of cream and brown to the fore. A cosy sitting room with TV and large sofas is accessible from outside via large patio doors, and an indoor dining room with seating for six complements an eye-catching kitchen which offers all the appliances you could want and some lovely views of the gardens.

The three bedrooms offer good flexibility and are perfect for a small to medium-sized family. As well as a double with en suite shower room, there's a twin room and a children's room with pull-out bed, again both with an en suite. Among the villa's other facilities are air-conditioning, a washing machine and dryer, and parking for two cars.

The resort of Benalmádena is home to some of the Costa del Sol's best attractions, including the popular Tivoli World funfair. There are also penguins, dolphins and sea lions to meet at Selwo Marina, and plenty more aquatic creatures at the Sea Life centre. Not far away, there's the Aquamijas water-park and Fuengirola's Bioparc, meaning the resorts of this beautiful stretch of coast offer much more than beaches. A plethora of great dining and shopping options can also be found in nearby Málaga, which also hosts a full calendar of events and festivals.

Location & Local Information

Benalmádena is a great place to take a holiday on the Costa del Sol – it's easy to get to, has all you could need, and it's close to several other popular cities too. It's also reliably warm, even in the winter. With an average summer temperature of 30°C, sun worshippers have good reason to flock to its long, sandy beaches.

You will find most of the town's attractions in the Benalmádena Costa area, including the beautiful park, El Parque de la Paloma. You will find a lake, waterfalls and landscaped gardens, and may even see some wildlife walking around. The adjacent Selwo Marina will give you a glimpse of dolphins, sea lions and even penguins.

Puerto Marina provides an attractive place to stroll around looking at boats, have a meal or do some shopping. Arroyo de la Miel is another great place to do that and is virtually a town in itself. It's here that you can get on a train and take a day trip to the likes of Málaga or Fuengirola.

Close to the train station, there's the ever-popular Tivoli World theme park and the cable cars which take you to the highest point in Málaga province. There is also a butterfly park, a swimming pool and a Buddhist temple – Benalmádena is home to the largest Buddhist stupa in the western world.

The town also hosts a number of festivals throughout the year, with live music, street theatre and food all important components. And on the subject of eating, don't miss out on trying the local seafood at one of the restaurants on the beach.
