

Broughton Hall

Region: Yorkshire Sleeps: 32

Overview

Broughton Hall makes a magnificent home for families or groups of friends who are looking for a unique base while exploring the wonderful region of Yorkshire. Dating back to 1597, the grand Grade 1 listed Hall is rich in history and character and boasts extravagant interiors and opulent furnishings throughout.

The Hall can comfortably accommodate up to thirty-two guests across seventeen beautifully appointed bedrooms set across two levels. On the ground floor is the main entertaining space, there are two drawing rooms with an interconnecting door, which when opened, creates a grand space perfect for family get-togethers or reunions! Spend mornings having breakfast in the bright conservatory while you plan your day's activities and evenings socialising in the billiards room. For an additional charge, Broughton Hall can be fully catered, and you can enjoy a delicious meal in the impressive dining room with your loved ones without having to lift a finger!

The seventeen bedrooms can be found split across the first and second floors. On the first floor there are six super king-size bedrooms each complete with en-suite facilities, an en-suite double room as well as a further two double rooms, an emperor room, a ¾ double room and a single room. Upstairs, on the second floor, is a further king-size room with en-suite bathroom, two twin rooms, one with en-suite bathroom as well as a final king-size and single room.

Broughton Hall is set within 3,000 acres of grounds, with woodland, parkland and moorland there is plenty for guests to explore and miles of pathways to suit all abilities. Guests of the hall have access to a private tennis court, perfect for those wanting to indulge in some friendly competition

Location & Local Information

Broughton Hall holds a fantastic location less than ten minutes from the popular market town of Skipton, often referred to as the gateway to the Yorkshire Dales National Park. There is plenty to see and do in Skipton, including visiting its award-winning market which operates every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday throughout the year and exploring the medieval Skipton Castle, both fantastic family-friendly days out. The curved limestone cliff of Malham Cove, as seen in Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows, is arguably one of the most iconic features of the Yorkshire Dales and just half an hour from the hall. It is a challenging walk to the top, but the incredible views make it worthwhile! Within the Broughton Estate is the North Yorkshire Land Rover Experience, here you can try your hand at off-road driving, with activities and days for those of all different levels, making it a fun day out for all.

What Oliver loves...

- Set within the Yorkshire Dales in 3,000 acres of beautiful gardens, guests fortunate enough to stay here will enjoy complete privacy and tranquility
- The historic Hall boasts magnificent interiors, quintessentially English with luxury bathrooms and all the 21st century modern amenities you could possibly need!
- The home has a fantastic location, set less than a ten minutes drive from the market town of Skipton, the gateway to the beautiful Yorkshire Dales

What you should know...

- There are two staircases in the house with low bannisters and so those travelling with particularly young children should ensure they take care
- The 3,000 acres of grounds are of course open to the public in places, however, the tennis court is completely private to guests of the Hall
