

Villa Snowdrop

Region: Mykonos Sleeps: 12

Overview

Villa Snowdrop is a sleek and beautiful villa near Lia beach. Split over three levels and with ample indoor and outdoor space, you won't find yourselves crowded. Instead, you can relax in luxury with a comfortable and stylish holiday villa. The property has Mykonos whitewashed walls to bounce the natural light through the home. Throughout, there are exposed wooden beams which add character and a unique element to the rooms. The property also boasts magnificent views and sunsets that you can witness!

The living space has comfortable sofas with a layout perfect for gathering with your guests. It has a television and DVD player for entertainment, great for kids and adults alike. This open-plan room is also the formal dining space, a large and unique dining table which offers a great indoor space to dine. There is an additional dining space provided, as there is outdoor dining furniture which gives you a great place to experience the beautiful weather while enjoying your meal! The kitchen has wooden cabinets and all the necessary modern appliances, including stainless-steel cooking appliances.

There is a range of bedrooms available, with en-suites, and one bedroom has a private bathroom. There are three master bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms. These are similar in design, with separation walls between the bedroom and en-suite room. Then there are two double bedrooms with en-suites. Some of the bedrooms even have additional seating available. There is a guest studio with a private bathroom and a living space. All the bedrooms are equipped with air conditioning which will be helpful if the heat is preventing a restful night's sleep!

Then finally, when you exit out into the rear, you'll find a covered terrace and a surprising facility: a little church on the property! It is perfect if you're having a smaller fairy-tale wedding in Mykonos. Villa Snowdrop has a private swimming pool with views of the surroundings and sun loungers which give you the ultimate location to relax! With the addition of the barbecue at the villa, you have all of the ingredients necessary for an entertaining and relaxing holiday in this wonderful location.

Location & Local Information

Villa Snowdrop is just over 12km from Mykonos town and airport. The villa is located near Lia beach which is a family-friendly beach with sandy bays, crystal blue waters and rocky spots perfect for snorkelling! The beach has a couple of restaurants and a scuba school. With locations to visit such as churches, parks and beachside activities you'll find plenty going on in this loved part of Mykonos.

Mykonos is an island in the Cyclades group. It is a great location for those looking for a vibrant nightlife, but it also has spectacular options and hidden gems for those who want a quieter, more relaxing holiday, for this Lia is idea. You'll find a great variety of beaches that offer family friendly and quiet locations, as well as ones that have water sports and cocktail bars as an example.

Paradise and Super Paradise are two of the most popular spots for a lively nightlife. These locations really come to life with parties, cocktail bars, clubs and great restaurants. For those who want a quieter holiday, you can head to Elia and Ornos which have beautiful hidden coves and calm beaches, or the hidden gem of Fokos which is a wild and remote beach away from the crowds and parties. And if you want a quieter meal, then you should make a trip to Mykonos Town.

If you are after a beach holiday, then Mykonos has a great collection of beaches to explore. Additionally, there are a few museums on Mykonos, so you can get a history lesson with real-life artefacts and locations! It is great for those who would love to know more about where they are staying, or just have a great interest in Greece!
