The house itself, with its traditional architecture and local sandstone used for both the façade and parts of the interior, radiates a warm, Mediterranean charm. On the ground floor is a large, elegant bedroom with an en suite bathroom and direct access to the beautiful covered terrace. The bright, spacious living room provides the perfect setting for the family to get together and spend some quality time. The spacious, modern kitchen is fully equipped with state-of-the-art appliances, and in the adjoining dining area, guests can enjoy delicious meals together at a long dining table.

Large glass doors also lead directly from the kitchen to the chic and stylish porch. Here you will find a second dining table and a large barbecue, where guests can enjoy alfresco meals whilst drinking in the view. On the first floor, there are three beautifully appointed bedrooms each with their own en suite await our vacationers. The sumptuous master bedroom has its own dressing room, as well as a private balcony, for guests to enjoy the stunning views in privacy.

Outside, the stunning infinity pool forms the central focus point. The views of the Balearic sea visible from this villa are utterly breathtaking. The hues of blue provide a serene and calming environment for guests; it is hard to see where the sea ends and the sky starts here. Grab a sun lounger and soak up the sun with a good book while the kids splash about in the pool!

Teak decks next to the pool are flanked on one side by a small volcanic stone garden, and the other is home to a cosy sitting area where you can enjoy the spectacular panoramic views in a magical setting. Just a 15 minute drive away is Palma, Mallorca's capital. Palma encompasses the vibrant city centre of the Borne known as the 'golden mile' and the main shopping street of Jaime III, the historic area of Casco Antiguo or the old-town as it's known, the popular tourist zone La Lonja, the trendy area of Santa Catalina, the seafront lively strip along Paseo Marítimo, the fisherman's barrio of Portixol and Playa de Palma, and the exclusive hillside golf area of Son Vida.

Palma is appealing year-round with an explosion of new trendy restaurants, luxury boutique hotels, fashionable bars, people watching cafe terraces, international shopping boutiques and popular nightclubs not to mention it's dynamic yachting industry, urban beaches, waterfront promenade, and extensive cultural scene including top-quality museums and art galleries, traditional local festivals and live music concerts.

Be sure to visit La Seu – the local name for Palma Cathedral – and the 14th-century hilltop Bellver Castle on your sightseeing 'must-see' list. One of Palma's most import museums, Es Baluard Museum of Modern & Contemporary Art offers a permanent collection comprised of paintwork, sculptures, ceramics and drawings from names such as Cézanne, Gauguin, Picasso, Miró, Magritte or Giacometti. Overlooking the Paseo Marítimo and La Lonja, even the view alone is incredible.

If you enjoy shopping, then Palma boasts some top luxury brand stores and boutiques, such as Louis Vuitton on Paseo del Borne which is now known as the Golden Mile. Also on the Borne is the three-storey Hugo Boss store, Italian brand Twin-Set, vintage luxury handbags from Rouge and lots more. Steps away onto Carrer Constitució is Watches of Switzerland – one of the world's most prestige watch and jewellery stores.

The narrow alleys around the Plaza Mayor are lined with small local boutiques and shops, while Palma's high street Jaime III, offers the elegant labels of the fashion world. When you've finished browsing and buying, you'll find a great choice of restaurants, cafés and bars – many with outside terraces for a chance to people-watch in Palma.
